Preface

This volume contains the conferences given at the third international symposium for Fayum studies, after Sommerhausen in 2003 and Lecce in 2005.

We would like to thank Christian Leitz, Tübingen, who not only incited us to organize this Symposium again but also suggested the idyllic convention hotel at Freudenstadt in the Black Forest; his help before and during the meeting was very welcome.

Many thanks also to the Fritz Thyssen Foundation which granted us financial support and thus enabled us to invite many interested colleagues as speakers. We are also grateful to all participants whose communications and discussions made the symposium a full success. Karl-Theodor Zauzich who introduced both of us to the study of Demotic texts from Soknopaiou Nesos stressed in his final address the positive working atmosphere which permeated not only the sessions but also the day trip to Strasbourg at the end of the meeting.

The Harrassowitz publishing house and especially Barbara Krauß and Jens Fetkenheuer attended the formation of this volume with their usual professionalism.

We also thank Jacqueline Strzys, Göttingen, for editorial assistance.

The lecture by Cornelia Römer ("Sieben Jahre Survey im Fayum") will be published in a volume about the survey in the Themistou Meris 2008/09.

One of the intended goals of taking on the organization of the Fayum Symposium once again was to turn this meeting into a regular event. By offering her hospitality for the next Fayum Conference at Vienna, Cornelia Römer is ready to continue our endeavours.
