

Contents

Preface	page vii
Introduction	1
PART I: THE CRISIS OF HISTORICAL MEANING
1 The Meaning of Meaning	11
2 The Death of the Author	35
3 The Crisis of Historical Meaning	55
4 The Twilight of Idols	80
PART II: ON THE WAY TO POST-HISTORICAL HERMENEUTICS
5 The Interpreter as the Location of Meaning: Martin Heidegger	99
6 Faith and History: Bultmann's Debate with Barth	143
7 The Linguistic Turn: Language as a Symbolizing System	157
PART III: POST-HISTORICAL HERMENEUTICS
8 Interpretation as Dialogue: Hans-Georg Gadamer	175
9 Interpretation and Critique: Jürgen Habermas	199
10 The Hermeneutics of Recollection and Suspicion: Paul Ricoeur	227
11 Interpretation before the Face of the Other: Emmanuel Levinas	247
12 The Embodied Interpreter: Deleuze and Guattari	268
Conclusion: Post-historical Interpretation	302
Index	313