

Contents

1	Setting Up a Project	1
	Choosing a Project	2
	The Individual	4
	Your Supervisor	5
2	Choosing a Project, Location, and Supervisor	7
	Choosing Your Subject	8
	Supervision	11
	Choosing the Right Supervisor	12
	Presence	12
	Approachable	13
	Grant Applications	14
	Knowledge	15
	Track Record	16
	Money	16
3	Choosing a Degree	19
	Master of Science (MSc)	20
	Doctorate of Medicine (MD or DM)	21
	Doctorate of Philosophy (PhD or DPhil)	22
4	Getting a Grant	25
	Introduction	25
	Timing Your Application	27
	Where to Apply	28
	How to Write a Grant Application	30
	Project Outline and Structure	31

Project Finance	33
Other Issues.	33
5 Special Qualifications and Equipment	37
Research and Development Registration	38
Ethical Approval	38
Licensing for Animal Research	40
The Beginning	40
Mandatory Training Courses	42
The Personal License Form	42
Recent Developments	43
Equipment.	43
Summary.	45
Suggested Further Reading	46
Useful Websites.	46
6 Getting Started	49
The First Day	49
Must Have.	50
Starting Work	52
Write It Down!	52
Your Working Day	54
Expect Failures	55
Clinical Projects	56
Summary.	56
7 Data Management.	59
Getting Started	60
Early Data.	60
Building Data	61
Keeping Track.	63
Writing Up	63
8 Writing Up.	65
The “How to” Guide of Writing Up	67
Reference Managing Software	70
Publications.	71

9 An Academic Career Pathway	73
Background	73
Opportunities	75
The “Old Fashioned” Way	77
10 Getting Back	81
Getting a Job	81
Start Early	82
The Application Process	85
The Interview	86
You Got the Job!	89
While You Are Waiting	89
11 Life After	91
What to Do If You Have Not Written Up	92
Papers, Presentations, etc.	95
Posters	95
Papers	96
Maintaining Links	97
Closing Remarks	98
Index	101