

Professional Development
FOR Culturally
Responsive AND
Relationship-Based Pedagogy

EDITED BY
CHRISTINE E.
SLEETER

CONTENTS

Chapter 1: The Quest for Social Justice in the Education of Minoritized Students	1
Christine E. Sleeter, California State University Monterey Bay
Chapter 2: Te Kotahitanga: Kaupapa Māori in Mainstream Classrooms	23
Russell Bishop, University of Waikato
Chapter 3: The Professional Development Process	47
Mere Berryman, University of Waikato
Chapter 4: Evaluating the Effectiveness and Impact of Teacher Professional Development	69
Luanna H. Meyer, Victoria University
Chapter 5: Professional Development from Teacher and Facilitator Perspectives	91
Anne Hynds, Victoria University Christine E. Sleeter, California State University Monterey Bay
Chapter 6: Culturally Responsive Pedagogies across the Curriculum: What Teachers Say and Do	115
Catherine Savage and Rawiri Hindle, Victoria University

Chapter 7: The Impact of Culturally Responsive Pedagogies on Students and Families	139
Wally Penetito, Rawiri Hindle, Anne Hynds, Catherine Savage, and Larissa Kus, Victoria University
Chapter 8: Professional Development for Culturally Responsive and Relationship-Based Pedagogy	163
Christine E. Sleeter, California State University Monterey Bay, Russell Bishop, University of Waikato, and Luanna Meyer, Victoria University
Notes	179
References	181
Index	193