

quality assurance deregulation
cost-effectiveness
entrepreneurialism fees
academic capitalism competitiveness
consumer choice Mode 2 knowledge instrumentalism selectivity

NEOLIBERAL DEVELOPMENTS IN HIGHER EDUCATION

The United Kingdom and Germany

autonomy liberal education collegiality unity of knowledge unity of research and teaching unity of teachers and learners trust Mode 1 knowledge
academic freedom tenure

Rosalind M. O. Pritchard

Peter Lang

Contents

List of Tables	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
Abbreviations, Contractions and Acronyms	xiii
Introduction	I
CHAPTER 1
Academic Freedom and Autonomy in the United Kingdom and Germany	19
CHAPTER 2
Principles and Pragmatism in Private Higher Education: Examples from the United Kingdom and Germany	45
CHAPTER 3
Challenges of Participation in German Higher Education: An East–West Comparison	81
CHAPTER 4
Trends in the Restructuring of German Universities	97
CHAPTER 5
Government Power in British Higher Education	127

CHAPTER 6

Some International Perspectives on British Teacher Training	149
---	-----

CHAPTER 7

British and German Students in a Shifting Scenario	171
--	-----

CHAPTER 8

The Influence of Market Force Culture on British and German Academics	201
---	-----

CHAPTER 9

New Public Management, Academic Time and Gender Inequality (with Mary Henkel)	231
--	-----

CHAPTER 10

The Bologna Process in Higher Education: German and British Responses	255
--	-----

References	297
------------	-----

Index	323
-------	-----