

Table of Contents

Invention, Rewriting, Usurpation Discursive Fights over Religious Traditions in Antiquity Introduction Anders-Christian Jacobsen / Jörg Ulrich	VII
Theme 1: Reuse, Rewriting and Usurpation of biblical and Classical Texts
Invention, Rewriting, Usurpation: The Case of the Johannine Gospel in the Second Century Harold W. Attridge	1
From Athanasius to “Athanasius”: Usurping a “Nicene Hero” or: The Making-of of the “ Athanasian Creed ” Christian Müller	19
Fido recubans sub tegmine Christi: Rewriting as Orthodoxy in the Epigrammata Damasiana Marianne Sághy	41
Velamentum stultitiae: 1 Cor 1:20f. and 3:19 in Lactantius’ Divine Institutes Gábor Kendeffy	57
An Intertextual Geography of Cultural Value: Flavius Josephus on the Inland Location of the Jewish People Gunnar Haaland	71
Canon as Pharmakón: Inside and Outside Discursive Sanity in Imperial Greek Literature Peter von Möllendorff	89
Tradition and Innovation: The Transformation of Classical Literary Genres in Christian Late Antiquity Karla Pollmann	103
An Unworthy Baptism Revisited Jennifer Hart	121
Theme 2: Invention and Maintenance of Religious Traditions
“Invention” and “Maintenance” of Religious Traditions: Theoretical and Historical Perspectives Anders Klostergaard Petersen	129
Dimensions and Developments of Early Christian Historiography Jörg Ulrich	161

“Invented Traditions” and “New Traditions” in Earliest Christianity Oda Wischmeyer	177
--	-----

Theme 3: Orthodoxy and Heresy

What is Heresy, and Why Did it Matter? Einar Thomassen	191
--	-----

Bishop – Bible – Creed: Normative Rules in the Contest for “Orthodoxy” and “Heresy” in Early Christianity Uta Heil	203
--	-----

Orthodoxy, Authority and the (Re-) Construction of the Past in Church Councils Thomas Graumann	219
---	-----

Shenoute’s Heresiological Polemics and its Context(s) Hugo Lundhaug	239
---	-----

Theme 4: The Formation of the Biblical Canon

Scriptural Practices in Early Christianity: Towards a New History of the New Testament Canon David Brakke	263
--	-----

Second Temple Jewish Hermeneutics: How Canon is Not an Anachronism Stephen B. Chapman	281
--	-----

“Be Good Moneychangers”: The Role of an Agraphon in a Discursive Fight for the Canon of Scripture Giovanni Bazzana	297
---	-----

The Usurpation of the Old Testament Sebastian Moll	313
--	-----