

HEATHER ANDERSON

Raising the Civil Dead

Prisoners and Community Radio

PETER
LANG

Table of Contents

Foreword	11
Introduction	13
About the author	14
What is Prisoners' Radio?	15
Theoretical framework development	16
A readers' guide	18

Section One

Chapter One

Theorising community radio – citizens' media and beyond	23
Introduction	23
Citizens' media	24
Additional community radio frameworks	28
Studies of community radio	31
Access and participation – cornerstones of community radio ..	33
Representation of heterogenous communities	35
Alternative /supplement to the mainstream media	36
Demystifying the media	38
Summary	39

Chapter Two

Participating in the public sphere	41
Introduction	41
Alternative public spheres	42
Public sphere processes and the media	46
Mass media and the imperfect public sphere	47
Alternative media and the public sphere	50
Community radio as public sphere activity	53
Summary	55

Chapter Three
Prisoners, citizenship and the public sphere	57
Introduction	57
Prisoners, voting and radical notions of citizenship	58
Mainstream media coverage of prison issues	63
Restrictions of communications from prisons	66
Isolation and reduced communications within prison	68
Prison media	72
Summary	76

Section Two

Chapter Four
A methodology for studying Prisoners' Radio	79
Introduction	79
Qualitative research into community media	79
The Collective Case Study	81
Research methods	88
Summary	91

Chapter Five
Prisoners' Radio – an international inventory	93
Introduction	93
Canada	94
Australia	97
Prisoners' radio beyond Canada and Australia	102
Internal radio stations	106
And finally	110
Summary	111

Chapter Six
Locked In , 4ZzZ 102.1 FM, Brisbane, Queensland	113
Introduction	113
4ZzZ	113
A history of prisoners' programming at 4ZzZ	115
Case Study Analysis	118
Summary	128

Chapter Seven
Beyond the Bars , 3CR 855 AM, Melbourne, Victoria	131
Introduction	131
3CR	131
History of Beyond the Bars	133
Case Study Analysis	136
Summary	144
Chapter Eight
Stark Raven , Co-op Radio, CFRO 102.7 FM,
Vancouver, British Columbia	145
Introduction	145
Co-op Radio	145
History of Stark Raven	147
Case Study Analysis	149
Summary	156
Chapter Nine
Prisoners' Justice Day programming, CKUT 90.3 FM,
Montreal, Quebec	157
Introduction	157
CKUT	157
History of Prisoners' Justice Day	159
Case Study Analysis	163
Summary	171
Chapter Ten
Prisoners Radio as citizens' media	173
Introduction	173
Prisoners' participation	175
Former prisoners on-the-air	180
Participation from the outside	189
The effects of participation	191
Summary	195
Chapter Eleven
Prisoners' Radio in the public sphere	197
Introduction	197

Who makes up “the public sphere” of Prisoners’ Radio?	198
Prisoners’ Radio as counterpublic –
contributions to the wider public sphere	200
The private/public world of Prisoners’ Radio –
operating as enclave	210
Agitating wider public spheres	212
Exclusion	214
Summary	219
Chapter Twelve
Conclusions	221
Introduction	221
A recap of the collective case study	221
Prisoners’ Radio as participation	223
Prisoners’ Radio as alternative discourse	224
Implications of the research and future applications	226
Appendices 229
Appendix A Locked In Program Content 2005	229
Appendix B Locked In Letter Content (May–June 2005) . . .	233
Appendix C Locked In Program Content 2007	234
Appendix D Locked In Letter Content
(February–March 2007)	238
Appendix E CD Content for Beyond the Bars 2 2005	239
Appendix F CD Content for Beyond the Bars 4 2007	241
Appendix G Stark Raven Program Content 2006	243
Appendix H Stark Raven Program Content 2007	247
Appendix I Prisoners’ Justice Day Program Content
on CKUT 2006	250
Appendix J Prisoners’ Justice Day Program Content
on CKUT 2007	252
Appendix K Comparison of content on CKUT’s Prisoners’
Justice Day programming 2006/2007	254
Appendix L Research Methods and Interviews	255
References	261