

Alex Ching-shing Chan

Intellectual Narratives

Theory, History and Self-Characterization of Social Margins in Public Writings

Peter Lang

Table of Contents

List of Tables	vi
Preface	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
1. Introduction: Intellectual Narratives as Historical Inquires and Life Reflections	1
2. A Genealogy of Social Theory on Intellectuals	21
3. The Narrativist Turn and the Historical Construction of Intellectual Self	37
4. Analysing and Defending Intellectual Narratives	61
5. Readings and Struggles: Hermeneutics of Suspicion in the Social Context of Intellectual Life	81
6. Emplotment, or Reflection on History, and Intellectual Self	99
7. Plots or Distinctive Personal Characters Acting for the Social Margins	121
8. Public Writings of Local Intellectuals – The Narrative Completion	153
9. Conclusion	179
References	203
Appendix: A Chronology of the Emplotment of Historical Events in Intellectual Narratives	231
Index	235