

CLASSROOM
and DISCOURSE
democracy
MAKING MEANINGS TOGETHER

SUSAN JEAN MAYER

Table of Contents

Foreword.....	xi
Acknowledgments.....	xv
Introduction: Intellectual Authority for All.....	1
Chapter One: Democratic Ideas about Knowledge.....	13
Any Number of Possibilities	14
Foundational, Expert, and Personal Understandings	17
Foundational Terms of Engagement	19
Expert Understandings and Theory	22
Our Personal Beliefs and Experience	24
The Relevance of This Analysis for Classroom Practice.....	27
Summary.....	30
Chapter Two: Knowledge Building as Interpretation	33
Classrooms as Interpretive Communities	34
Developmental Challenges	37
Cultural Resources.....	40
Individual Variety.....	43
Considering Complex Relationships	45
Interpretive Structures and Frameworks	46
Interpretive Structures.....	50
Participant Frameworks	52
Summary.....	54
Chapter Three: Teacher-Led Learning	57
Pedagogical Aims and Means	58
Analyzing Interpretive Authority.....	63
Reading for Participant Frameworks.....	64

The Teacher Leads the Way.....	68
Interpretive Structure	69
Participant Frameworks	72
Qualities of Attention	72
Boundary Tending	76
Opportunities for Learning	78
Summary.....	82
Chapter Four: Student-Led Learning	85
Pedagogical Aims and Means	88
Turning Matters Over to the Students.....	95
Interpretive Structure	95
Participant Frameworks	105
Qualities of Attention	105
Boundary Tending	110
Opportunities for Learning	117
Summary.....	119
Chapter Five: Co-Led Learning.....	123
Pedagogical Aims and Means	125
A Collaboration of Not-Quite Equals	127
Interpretive Structure	128
Participant Frameworks	139
Qualities of Attention	139
Boundary Tending	145
Opportunities for Learning	151
Summary.....	153

Chapter Six: Educating for Democracy	155
Comparisons and Contrasts among the Six Classrooms.....	162
Use of the Text.....	164
Use of the IRF Sequence	165
Agency	167
Authority	170
Desire	172
Intellectual Authority as the Heart of It All	174
Notes.....	179
Bibliography	193
Index.....	207