Introduction	xiii
---------------------------	------

Part I Visually Induced Seizures and Related Epilepsies

Chapter 1:

Photosensitivity, Epileptic Seizures and Epileptic Syndromes	3
---	---

Clarifications on Classification

Demographic Data

Clinical Manifestations

Generalised Seizures

Focal Seizures

Precipitating Factors

Self-induced Photic Reflex Seizures

Aetiology

Diagnostic Procedures

Prognosis

Management

Avoidance or Prevention of the Provocative Stimulus May Be the Only Treatment

AED Treatment

Chapter 2:

Idiopathic Photosensitive Occipital Lobe Epilepsy	15
--	----

Clarifications on Classification

Demographic Data

Clinical Manifestations

Precipitating Factors

Diagnostic Procedures

Electroencephalography

Aetiology

Differential Diagnosis

Prognosis

Management

Chapter 3:

Jeavons Syndrome	21

Considerations on Classification

Demographic Data

Clinical Manifestations

Precipitating Factors

Self-induction in Jeavons Syndrome

Aetiology

Pathophysiology

- Diagnostic Procedures
 - Electroencephalography
- Differential Diagnosis
- Prognosis
- Management

Chapter 4:

Pattern-Sensitive Epilepsy 27

- Demographic Data
- Clinical Manifestations
 - Environmental Stimuli
- Aetiology
 - Pathophysiology
- Diagnostic Procedures
- Prognosis
- Management

Chapter 5:

Fixation-off Sensitivity 31

- Clinical and EEG Correlations in Patients with FOS
 - Pathophysiology
- Scotosensitive Epilepsy
- Techniques for Documenting FOS

Part II Complex Reflex Epilepsies

Chapter 6:

Seizures Induced by Thinking and Praxis 37

Chapter 7:

Primary (Idiopathic) Reading Epilepsy 39

- Clarifications on Classification
- Demographic Data
- Clinical Manifestations
 - Precipitating Factors
- Aetiology
 - Pathophysiology
- Diagnostic Procedures
 - Electroencephalography
- Prognosis
- Management

Chapter 8:

Startle Seizures 43

- Clarifications on Classification
- Demographic Data
- Clinical Manifestations
- Aetiology
 - Diagnostic Procedures
 - Electroencephalography

Differential Diagnosis
Prognosis
Management

Chapter 9:

Hot Water Epilepsy. 47

Clarifications on Classification

Demographic Data

Clinical Manifestations

Aetiology

 Pathophysiology

Diagnostic Procedures

 Electroencephalography

Differential Diagnosis

Prognosis

Management
