

Contents

Acknowledgments	page vii
List of Abbreviations	ix
1. Introduction	I
2. War’s End and Blueprints for a New World Order	12
The Battle for Peace: Postwar Planning	16
Changing Perceptions: The DP Problem	22
Reparations in Paris	26
3. France: The Dialectics of Suffering and Sacrifice	32
Marcel Paul’s File	38
Restoration of the Republican Order	44
Combatants without Weapons: A Genealogy of French Reparations	52
The Moral Grammar of Redress	58
Compensation Practices	67
Réparations à la française	72
4. Germany: Hitler’s Many Victims and the Survivors of Nazi Persecution	76
The Struggle against Hitler’s Demon in the Transition Period	79
Under Allied Auspices: The Foundations of German Reparations	87
Victimhood Inflation and the Politics of Amnesty and Integration	95
The Tide Is Turning: Munich – Luxembourg – London	105
Behind Paragraphs and Figures: Reparations Praxis	115
Typical Nazi Wrongs: An Emerging Concept	131
German “Guilt Management”	141
5. Switzerland: Neutralizing the Past	145
Neutral Obligations? Swiss Participation in the Postwar Settlement	150
How to Deal with These Atrocity Files?	159
The Swiss Compensation Regime	162
Addressing State Responsibility	170

vi	Contents
“Self-Infliction”: A Zero-Sum Game	175
Fragmenting the Past	182
6. Conclusion – Talking about Victimization: A European Model	185
Notes	203
Archives	240
Bibliography	242
Index	265