

GERMANICA PACIFICA

Series Editor
James N. Bade

Christine Winter

Looking after One's Own

The rise of Nationalism and the Politics of the Neuendettelsauer Mission in Australia, New Guinea
and Germany (1921-1933)

9

PETER LANG

Internationaler Verlag der Wissenschaften

Table of Contents

Illustrations	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
Glossary	xi
Introduction	1
Part I Reorganising the Mission	27
Restructuring of Orphaned German Missions in the Mandated Territory of New Guinea.....	29
Director Eppelein's Journey to the Brisbane Negotiations.....	39
The Brisbane Meeting May 1929.....	47
Part II The Last Years of the Weimar Republic and Neuendettelsau's Political Repositioning	61
The Lossin Case.....	63
Public Politics and Party Political Neutrality.....	73
'Positive Christianity'? Discussions with the NSDAP.....	83
Part III Separating the Field	95
Theile's Objections.....	97
One God, one Language, one Nation:.....	109
Being True to Germany.....	123
Alea Jacta Est—The Die Is Cast: Lamentations.....	133
Part IV 1933	151
National Socialism in Government.....	153
Asserting the Mission—Defending the Nation.....	159
Light Cruiser Köln visits Rabaul.....	179
Neuendettelsau in Control?.....	193
Epilogue.....	205
Bibliography.....	217
Index.....	235