

Contents

Part I Introduction

- 1 The Politics of Military Reform in Indonesia and Nigeria . . . . . 3
Jürgen Rüländ and Maria-Gabriela Manea

Part II Military Reform in Indonesia and Nigeria

- 2 Taking Stock of Military Reform in Indonesia . . . . . 29
Leonard C. Sebastian and Iisgindarsah
- 3 Taking Stock of Military Reform in Nigeria . . . . . 57
Maria-Gabriela Manea and Jürgen Rüländ
- 4 Reinventing the Military as a Political Actor: Alternative
Discourses of Civil-Military Relations in Nigeria . . . . . 77
Jonah Isawa Elaigwu
- 5 Military Businesses in Post-Suharto Indonesia: Decline,
Reform and Persistence . . . . . 101
Marcus Mietzner and Lisa Misol

Part III Legislatures and Non-state Actors in Military Reform

- 6 The Legislature and Military Reform in Indonesia . . . . . 123
Jürgen Rüländ and Maria-Gabriela Manea
- 7 The Role of Civil Society in Indonesia's Military Reform . . . . . 147
Rizal Sukma
- 8 Parliament, Civil Society and Military Reform in Nigeria . . . . . 161
E. Remi Aiyede

Part IV Rogue Forces and Military Reform

9 Security Challenges and Military Reform in Post-authoritarian Indonesia: The Impact of Separatism, Terrorism, and Communal Violence . . . . . 185
 Jun Honna

10 The Niger Delta Conflict and Military Reform in Nigeria . . . . . 201
 Christian A. Lutz

Part V Conclusion

11 Reviving Security Sector Reform in Transition States: Lessons Learned from Indonesia and Nigeria . . . . . 225
 Hans Born