

Contents

List of music examples and figures page ix
Acknowledgements xiii
List of abbreviations xv

Introduction 1

1 Dutch music in the twentieth century 12
 Developments prior to World War II 13
 Developments after World War II 20

2 Formative years 29
 Formative years: neo-tonality and serialism 30
 Toward textural music, alea, and improvisation 40
 Collage and syncretism 45

3 Politics and “concept” works 59
 Collaborative opera and collage 61
 Embodiment of solidarity: agitated chant, “collective” unison,
 and minimalism 66
 “Concept” works: dialectical commentary on text 76
 Ideology, reception, and authenticity 92

4 Toward the metaphysical in art (1981–88) 100
 Dialectics of time and velocity 102
 De Materie (1984–88): the genesis of a non-opera 114
 Metaphysics of being and becoming 139

5 Ramifications 144
 The “hard-edged” aesthetics of The Hague school 145
 The making of an American “guru”: from California to
 New York City 149
 Analytic explorations: from bebop to Bach 154
 New music community as a heterotopian site 163

6 Operatic collaboration with Peter Greenaway 170
 Rosa: subverting the narrative 172
 Writing to Vermeer 183
 On the interface between music and drama 200

7 Contemplative works 207
 Form and expression in the Trilogy of the Last Day 209
 Beyond the Trilogy: exploration into madness and hell 231

8 Epilogue 239
 Music as commentary: parody and beyond 240
 Politics of reception 242

Bibliography 247
Index 258