

Table of Contents

Table of Contents 5

List of Figures 9

Preface 11

Introduction: Innovation is not unknown, but a systematic approach is lacking in Central and Eastern Europe 13

Size does not matter 15

In CEE the clocks are ticking at a different pace 19

Innovation is not just an easy way out of a crisis 23

Innovation performance catches up, slowly but surely 27

Why innovation is so hard 28

Outlook: How CEE can get to the top 33

1 PwC Success Formulas: What needs to be done first? 35

Innovations and consolidation influence each other 38

Which winner type are you? 45

Best practice examples prove the power of innovativeness 55

2 Innovation Concept: A must... made operational through rigorous day-to-day management 63

Screening of trends—get a picture of the future 68

Idea generation—the fuzzy front end of product development 75

Idea selection: Choosing between creativity and impact 89

Product development—from embedded ideas to embodied products 91

Product testing: Recognizing the limits 93

Product introduction—ready to reap the credits 95

- 3 Collaboration: Partnerships and alliances multiply innovation capacities 97
- Coopetition—more than a temporary trend 103
 - Changing the subject: R&D cooperation with science partners 105
 - Success factors for both sides of the network 113
 - The PwC global network 115
- 4 Talent: People must commit themselves and need to be empowered 121
- Innovation: An overall company effort 124
 - The Fantastic Five are better than a single superman 128
 - Case study ADRIA MOBIL: Continuity of talent management is what counts 132
 - Now is the time to start creating tomorrow's company 135
 - Engaging key talents in innovation processes 137
- 5 Leadership: Ongoing top management involvement and example setting makes a company a strong innovator 141
- Russian case studies: New systematic innovation processes—a question of leadership 142
 - Cases studies of global PwC best practices: 160
 - How to create innovative leadership 167
 - From employment to entrepreneurship 168
 - Top management has to be on board 170
 - Creativity is the infinite source of innovation 171
 - Lifelong learning is a must 172
 - Most common blockades 173
 - PwC PowerPitch 174
- 6 Commercialization: Be first in the market with your innovations and differentiate 177
- Product life cycle concept 179
 - Access the market with respect to different customer groups 184
 - Segments of innovation adopters during the product life cycle 189
 - Acceptance via contagion 191

Reach the customer by communication	194
Develop commercialization capability	197
Influences on product life cycle	200

7 Outlook: How CEE can get to the top 203

Bibliography 209

The Authors 215

Contributors of individual case studies 216

