

Contents

Preface	page ix
1. The Curse Revisited: The Dynamics of Social Change
in China	1
“Partial Reform”	2
The Market Transition Debate	6
Social Networks and the Market	10
Community Capitalism	13
About the Book	14
2. Circle on the Outside, Square on the Inside	23
A Historical Dialectic: Collectivization–De-collectivization–
Re-collectivization	23
Industrialization: The Way to Get Rich	31
Social Welfare: Building a Socialist Heaven	39
The Village at First Glance	41
Slogans and Chairman Mao	41
The Search for Equality	45
Behind the Scene	46
A Two-Tiered System	46
Monolith or Mosaic?	50
Nanjie’s “Resident Aliens”	52
Circle on the Outside and Square on the Inside	57
A Political Conspiracy?	63
Some Final Comments	64
On Mao Zedong Thought and Nanjie	64
On Collectivism and Nanjie	66

viii	Contents
3.	Socialism with Huaxi Characteristics	71
	A Brief Village History	72
	Socialism, Huaxi-Style	80
	The Dominant Leader: A Patriarchal System of Management	80
	The System of Distribution: Ability versus Needs	87
	Culture and Ideology	94
4.	Capitalism Reborn or Collectivism Rediscovered?	97
	Wenzhou and the Private Economy	99
	Developing a Private Economy in China	99
	The Wenzhou Model	102
	Shangyuan Village: Supplementing the Private with the Public	107
	A Shareholding Land Cooperative	107
	An Overview of the Village	108
	Small Party, Big People	113
5.	Back to the Future: Community Capitalism and the Search for Alternatives	121
	Ownership Structures	122
	Institutional Structures	124
	Culture and Social Networks	127
	The Rationality of Collectivism and Community Capitalism	129
	Appendix A: Methodology	135
	Appendix B: Map of Site Locations	138
	Bibliography	139
	Index	147