PREFACE

THE author desires to record his grateful acknowledgment for valuable aid given in special subjects in this volume:—to the Rev. S. A. P. Kermode of Cambridge for his admirable summary of the botanical features of the island; to Mr P. G. Ralfe of Castletown for his account of the avifauna; and to Mr E. C. Quiggin, of Gonville and Caius College, Cambridge, for much relating to early history and the language. Acknowledgment is also gratefully made to Messrs T. S. Keig and W. Cubbon for kind assistance with regard to the illustrations.
