

Internationale Theologie
International Theology

Nigel Paul Willis

The Pentecostal
Movement,
its Challenges and Potential

PETER LANG EDITION

Table of Contents

Chapter One

An Introduction to the Dissertation	13
1.1 Pentecostalism as a Rapidly Growing Feature of the Global Religious Stage – The Rationale for this Research	13
1.2 The Pursuit of the Aim	16
1.3 The Suppositions of this Research	18
1.4 Sources and Data Collection	18
1.5 Methodology	19
1.6 Chapter Outline	20

Chapter Two

Rising to the Challenges of the Times: Grant Wacvker's Historical Perspectives on Certain Defining Characteristics of the Pentecostal Movement	27
2.1 Introduction	27
2.2 The Background of Grant Wacker	27
2.3 Wacker's Assessment of the Reasons for the Growth of Pentecostalism – and the Development of his Ideas on the Matter	28
2.4 Grant Wacker and the 'Dilemma of Historical Consciousness'	31
2.5 The Genealogy of Wacker's Ideas on the Dilemma of Historical Consciousness and the Implications thereof for Pentecostalsim	33
2.6 Wacker's Understanding of the Sociology of Pentecostal Theology	35
2.7 The Historical Perception of Anti-intellectualism in the Pentecostal Tradition	39
2.8 Pentecostalism's Special Appeal to the Socially Disadvantaged	40
2.9 Glossolalia and Pentecostalism	43
2.10 The Prospects for Pentecostalism's Theological Dialogue with Other Christian Denominations, Other World Religions and Those Who Profess No Religion	44
2.11 Trinitarianism and Pentecostalism	45
2.12 Summary of Grant Wacker's Historical Perspectives	47

Chapter Three

A Highway over the Crossroads: Margaret Poloma's Perspectives as a Sociologist Concerning the Pentecostal Movement	49
3.1 Introduction	49
3.2 The Background of Margaret Poloma	50
3.3 The Genealogy of Poloma's Ideas	51
3.4 The Question of Pentecostalism's Special Appeal for the Disadvantaged in Poloma's Assessment of the Reasons for Pentecostalism's Growth Worldwide	55
3.5 The Protest against Modernity Theory	58
3.6 The Central Tenet of Spirit Baptism in Pentecostalism	59
3.7 Glossolalia or "Speaking in Tongues"	61
3.8 The Prospects for Pentecostalism's Theological Dialogue with Others: Past Perspectives and Present Dilemmas	63
3.9 Different 'Ways of Being' as Potential Barriers to Pentecostalism's Ecumenical Dialogue	66
3.10 The Potential for Pentecostalism in Ecumenical Dialogue	67
3.11 Summary of Poloma's Perspectives	68

Chapter Four

The Metaphor of Spirit Baptism: The Theology of Frank Macchia	69
4.1 Introduction	69
4.2 The Background of Frank Macchia	69
4.3 Macchia's Assessment of Pentecostalism as a Feature of the Global Religious Stage: the Significance of 'Spirit Baptism'	72
4.4 The Conditions that Gave Rise to the Pentecostal Tradition	76
4.5 Pentecostalism's Theological Dialogue, Historically, with the World: are Past Tendencies Likely to be Inherent in the Present and the Future?	77
4.5.1 Pentecostalism's Ecumenical Perspectives in the Past	77
4.5.2 Will the Past Determine Pentecostalism's Future Engagement with the Rest of the World?	78
4.6 The Pneumatological Implications for Ecclesiology, Apostolicity and Catholicity	80
4.7 Pentecostalism, 'Oneness' Pentecostals and the Trinity	83
4.8 The Essence Underlying Macchia's Promotion of Ecumenical Conversations between Pentecostals and Others	88
4.9 Glossolalia or "Speaking in Tongues"	89
4.10 The Question of Eschatological Transcendence	91
4.11 Summary of the Theology of Frank Macchia	93

Chapter Five

Rising to the Challenges of the Times: The Theology of Amos Yong	95
5.1 Introduction	95
5.2 The Background of Amos Yong and the Development of his Ideas	96
5.3 Yong's Perspectives as to the Potential Contribution which Pentecostalism can Bring to Contemporary Theology	101
5.4 Socio-Economic Factors in the Pattern of Pentecostalism's Growth and Development	102
5.5 The Issue of Glossolalia	106
5.6 Yong on the Deeper Implications of the Pentecost Account Given by Luke	108
5.7 Yong's Insights on the Pneumatological Implications for Apostolicity, Catholicity and Ecclesiology	111
5.8 Yong on Placing the Right Perspective on the Relationship between Ecumenism and Pentecostalism	113
5.9 Pentecostalism and the Trinity: the Question of the 'Oneness' Pentecostals and Some of the Implications of Conversations Transcending Religious Boundaries	115
5.10 Pentecostalism and the Challenges of Science	116
5.11 Summary	118

Chapter Six

Astounding Resonance Amidst Four Perspectives: Pentecostal Theological Trajectories	119
6.1 Introduction	119
6.2 Pentecostalism's Complex Relationship with Modernity	122
6.3 Pentecostalism: the Challenges of the Future	124
6.4 The Prospects for Pentecostalism's Participation in Conversations across Boundaries	127
6.5 The Potential Contribution of Pentecostalism to Ecumenical and Inter-faith Conversations by way of its Pneumatological Theology	131
6.6 The Issues of Ecclesiology, Apostolicity and Catholicity	131
6.7 Pentecostalism, the 'Oneness' Pentecostals and the Doctrine of the Trinity – Some Ecclesiological Implications	134
6.8 The Wider Implications of Pentecostalism's Pneumatological Theology	137
6.9 Testing the Claims for a Pentecostal Pneumatological Theology	140
6.10 The Relationship between Pentecostalism and Science in the Perspectives of Wacker, Poloma, Macchia and Yong	143
6.11 Summary	144

Chapter Seven

Conclusions: The Pouring out of the Spirit	145
7.1 Introduction	145
7.2 Spirit Baptism as the Key to Understanding the Pentecostal Movement	145
7.3 Pentecostals as ‘Separated Brothers and Sisters’	147
7.4 The Likelihood of a Deepening Conversation between Pentecostals and ‘Others’	149
7.5 The Potential of a Theology Focusing Upon the Experience of the Spirit	150
7.5.1 Ecumenical Conversations, Pentecostalism and the Issues of Ecclesiology, Apostolicity and Catholicity	150
7.5.2 ‘Oneness’ Pentecostals and Deeper Trinitarian Understandings ..	152
7.5.3 The Theological Implications of a Heightened Awareness of Our Shared Humanity	154
7.5.4 Conversations across Religious Divides	155
7.5.5 The Possibilities of a Spirit-focused ‘Trialogue’ Among Christians, Muslims and Jews in Particular	156
7.5.6 The Promotion of World Peace Including Racial and Gender Reconciliation	157
7.5.7 The Possibilities of a Positive Interface between Science and Religion	159
7.6 Relationship is Everything in Both Science and Religion	160
7.7 The Relationship of the Spirit with the World as a Relationship of Love	161
7.8 Ecological Awareness Harnessed with an Awareness of the Action of the Spirit	164
7.9 Discerning the Spirits	165
7.10 Regeneration and the Potential of Pentecostal Theology	168
Bibliography	171