

Krzysztof Zajas

Absent Culture

The Case of Polish Livonia

Polish Studies - Transdisciplinary Perspectives

Edited by Krzysztof Zajas / Jarosław Fazan

PETER LANG
EDITION

Contents

Introduction

The Re-creation of a Nonexistent Land	9
1. Theses on Absence	9
2. Pretexts for Coming into Existence	21
3. Toponymy as a Realm of Conflict.....	24
4. Where is Polish Livonia?.....	28

Chapter 1

German History of Livonia: The Conquistador Complex	33
1. “Aufsegelung Livlands” (“The Discovery of Livonia”).....	37
2. The Livonian Brothers of the Sword	40
3. The Ecclesiastical State of the Teutonic-Livonian Order.....	44
4. The Hanseatic League	47
5. The End of the Teutonic State and the Beginnings of Dependence	52
6. The Baltic Identity of the Germans	63
7. Kulturträger’s Pride	66
8. 1914–1918: The Beginning of the End.....	77
9. 1919–1939: The Great Minority	81
10. 1939–1945: The War. Expulsions. The End.....	86
11. Life After Life. The Relic. Dying Out	90
12. Coda.....	91

Chapter 2

Polish History of Livonia: Nowhereland	93
1. Incorporation: Voluntary Coercion	93
2. Stubbornness.....	100
3. Correction: Polish Livonia.....	107
4. Courland and Semigallia	109
5. Piltene	119
6. The Livonian Voivodeship: Churches and Administrative Offices	126

7. Livonians: Differentiations	131
8. Microhistory: Tracts and Foundations	140
9. Insurrections: Catholic (Meaning Polish?)	153
10. Riga and Dorpat: Change of Status	162
11. The Interwar Period: A Quiet Funeral	165
12. The Final Years: Return	170
13. Coda	172

Chapter 3

First Digression: Formative Historiography	175
1. Between Fact and Fiction	178
2. History and Existence	183
3. Object and Verification	189
4. Representation	191
5. Closure	196
6. Hermeneutics: The Aporia of Truth	199
7. Tipping the Scales	202

Chapter 4

Project Livonia	213
1. Marcin Kwiatkowski from Rożyce: Outline	214
2. Jan August Hylzen: Argument	221
3. Gustaw Manteuffel: Patchwork	231

Chapter 5

Second Digression: Borderlands. Circulation of Discourses	255
1. The Elusive Borderlands	259
2. Deficient Diachrony	265
3. Identity as Choice and Coercion	268
4. Stubborn Regionalism	272
5. The Kingdom of Sentiment	275
6. Writing History	278
7. Geopoetics	280
8. Pointillism	282
9. Discourses in Circulation	284

Chapter 6

Polish-Livonian Literature	293
1. What does “Polish-Livonian” mean?	295
2. Konstancja Benisławska: Modlka niepusta [Prayer Which Is Not Empty]	297
3. Rubon: Pszczelnik z krajowego kwiecia [A Bouquet of Native Flowers]	310
4. Adam Plater: Łajwas i zwoszczyks [Canoes and Rafts]	326
5. Kazimierz Bujnicki: A Periodical Traveler	330
6. Gustaw Manteuffel: A Hologram of Nationalism	341
7. Picturesque: Or, The Charms of the Daugava	352
8. Olga Dauksza: The Eyes of Daugava’s Loam	357
9. Kazimiera Iłakowiczówna: Kraslavan Existence	365

Conclusion

The Railroad Tracks Bypassed Pasiene	371
Coda	374

Appendix

Report of Research in the Latvian Academic Library

and the Latvian National Library in Riga, 2005	377
Riga’s First Printed Work	377
Panegyrics for Polish and Lithuanian Politicians	378
Responses to Politics	380
Riga and the Commonwealth at the End of the 17th Century	383
Summary	385
Suggestions for Further Research	386
A List of Attachments	387

Bibliography	391
I. A Bibliography of Works on Livonia	391
II. Theoretical Works	404