

Lucyna Aleksandrowicz-Pędich

Memory and Neighborhood:
Poles and Poland
in Jewish American Fiction
after World War Two

Warsaw Studies in Jewish History and Memory

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	7
Introduction	9
Part I. Collective Portrait	19
I. Polish Anti-Semitism	20
II. Unpleasant Polish Types	44
III. Other Poles	51
IV. Poles and Jews in Multicultural America	60
Part II. Memory	67
I. Cities, Shtetls , Ghettos	68
II. Poland: A Country from the Old World	84
III. Poland as the Site of the Second World War and the Holocaust	88
IV. Poland as the Land of Death	99
V. Poland as a Hostile Place	105
VI. The Jew and the Polish Inheritance	111
VII. At the Intersection of Contact: Customs, Values, Superstitions	127
Part III. Other Traces	131
I. Famous People	131
– Poles	131
– Polish Jews	140
II. Things from Poland	147
III. Contacts with Contemporary Poland	149
IV. Polish-sounding Names	151
Conclusion	155
Bibliography	161
Index	167