

STUDIES IN SOCIAL SCIENCES, PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY OF IDEAS 2

Szymon Wróbel

Deferring the Self

PETER LANG
EDITION

Contents

Introduction: Practicing the Humanities	9
1. The politics of reading	10
2. The question of method	13
3. Styles of practicing the humanities	14
4. The practices of dislocation	16
5. Psychoanalysis, politics and art	18
6. The clinic of politics	21
7. Deferring (nachträglich) the Self	23
8. Practice	25
 PART ONE:
PSYCHOANALYSIS	29
I. Consent and Resistance to Psychoanalysis	31
1. The renaissance of psychoanalysis in question	31
2. Psychoanalysis as an anthropology	35
3. Unreason and Enlightenment	36
4. Kultur or fantasies about nature	38
5. The future of psychoanalysis	41
II. Foucault reads Freud: the Dialogue with Unreason and Enlightenment	45
1. Presence of the name	45
2. Freud in Foucault's work: critical presence	49
3. Who reads what?	55
4. There once was a star on which clever animals invented knowledge	60
5. Freedom and psychoanalysis	64
III. The Concept of the Death Drive. Reading Slavoj Žižek's Opera's Second Death	69
1. Plan	69
2. Wagner und haunted subjects	71
3. Death drive	72
4. The death drive as the mask of the symbolic order	76
5. The return of the dead	80
IV. Rethinking Deconstruction:
Why Deconstruction is Inventive or It is Nothing at All?	83
1. The question of school	83
2. Is deconstruction a form destruction?	85

3. Is deconstruction a method of analysis?	87
4. Is deconstruction a method of critique?	89
5. Is deconstruction a practice of reading?	93
6. The ethics of deconstruction	95
7. Invention	98
V. Roland Barthes reads Michel Houellebecq's The Map and the Territory	103
1. Adjacency and randomness	103
2. Painting entitled Michel Houellebecq, Writer	108
3. Father or the Pre-Raphaelites	113
4. Involuntary images	116
VI. The Return of Alcibiades. A Tale on Repression of Eros	119
1. Alcibiades' Mystery	119
2. Educational Failure	125
3. Seductive Satyr	129
4. The Return of Alcibiades	133

PART TWO:

POLITICS	141
I. The Limits of the Political	143
1. The very concept of the political today	143
2. Diagnosis: from the end of politics to the reinvention of politics	146
3. What is politics proper?	153
4. The concept of the political as the parasites concept	153
5. The concept of the proper politics as a concept of representation	155
6. Politics, politizations and depolitizations	158
II. Mourning Populism: the Case of Poland	161
1. Populism in question	161
2. Not populism but the logic of populism	164
3. Populism in Poland	169
4. Populism after trauma	173
5. From mourning to narcissism	181
III. Beyond Identity. Beyond Europe	185
1. Europe and the problem of identity	185
2. The idea of recognition	190
3. The reification of identity	191
4. Two politics	192
5. Fragmentation of identities	194
6. The metaphysical heritage of Europe	196
7. Europe again	200

IV. The Desire for Sovereignty as the Desire for Addiction	205
1. King's speech.....	205
2. Good dependence.....	210
3. All you need is love	212
4. Identification with the Leader.....	213
5. All you need is love (again).....	215
6. Dwarf.....	219
V. In Praise of Monstrosities. The Case of Niccolò Machiavelli.....	221
1. A lamb with a pig's head.....	221
2. Monsters without a future.....	224
3. Situation.....	227
4. Goddess Circe.....	231
5. Constitution.....	238
6. Chiron the Centaur.....	240
VI. Friedrich Nietzsche's three Hypotheses about the Origins of the Tragic Chorus.....	245
1. Crisis.....	245
2. Hypotheses.....	247
3. A living wall.....	248
4. The satyr on the scaffolding	249
5. The screen.....	251
6. Representation	252
7. Political theater	254
8. The border.....	255
9. Civility.....	258

PART THREE:

ART	261
I. The Art of Living: Creation and Identity	263
1. The case of Oglala Lakota	263
2. Adolescence	265
3. Identity in the late modernity.....	267
4. Auto-creation and solidarity	270
5. Imagination and identity	273
6. The frontier identity.....	275
II. Labour of Memory: the Case of Warsaw	279
1. Fashion.....	279
2. Static form of Plexiglas	281
3. Frameworks	283
4. The present.....	285

5. Compulsion.....	286
6. The phenomena of hypermnesic memory.....	287
7. The Mystic Writing-Pad	290
8. Pornography.....	292
9. Heroism.....	294
10. Words and images.....	296
11. Monument.....	299
III. Between Kinship and Alienation:
Three Fantastic Tales on Man in Nature	303
1. Encounters	303
2. Being accepted by a troop of blue monkeys.....	310
3. Zoo as an asylum	312
4. Baboon interested in girls	316
5. Caretaker at a zoo	319
IV. Either Thinking or Art.....	321
1. Coming to know each other.....	321
2. Pleasure.....	323
3. Drawing	327
4. The lost dignity of objects	330
5. Time and space	334
6. Weariness.....	338
V. The Art of Creating Concepts	343
1. The sources	343
2. The intention.....	344
3. Modality.....	347
4. What is a concept that a person may not grasp?	350
5. Spider: concepts as monsters	355
VI. The Spectacle of Absolute Power	357
1. The spectacle	357
2. The masses.....	359
3. The spectacle of torture/a TV spectacle.....	364
4. Tele-vision/absolute authority.....	368
VII. Szymon Wróbel by Szymon Wróbel.....	371
References.....	375
Index	389