

RESTORING DIGNITY IN RURAL AND URBAN MADAGASCAR

*On How Religion Creates
New Life-stories*

MARIANNE SKJORTNES

Bible & Theology in Africa

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
Abbreviations	xiii
Chapter 1. Introduction – A Life-Long Relationship	1
Stories of Changed Life	8
Chapter 2. The Resurgence of Religion	15
The Desecularization of the World	16
Churches in Changing Contexts	19
The Role of Religion in Development	22
Aid Work and Faith Identity	25
Chapter 3. The Setting	29
The Concept of Religion	29
Views of Christianity	34
Ancestral Malagasy Religion	39
Spirit Possession	43
Establishing Christian Churches	46
Lutheran Christianity	49

The Malagasy Lutheran Church and Development Work	51
Fifohazana – Local Christian Initiatives	57
Chapter 4. Bara Becoming Malagasy: A Story of Change in Southwestern Madagascar	61
A Pastoral People	61
Relations to Greater Society	63
Cattle as Capital	65
A Kinship-Based Society	69
Sexual Relations as Exchange	71
Customs in Change – Securing Continuity	74
Addressing Vulnerability	77
Chapter 5. Life Stories on Restoring Human Dignity	85
Tsara	88
Zefa	90
Soavita	92
The Road to Modernity	96
Chapter 6. Urban Citizens in Search of a Living: A Story of Changes in and Around Antsirabe	99
Antsirabe – the City of Expectations	99
City Dwellers and Peasants	103
Suffering a Shortage of Land	107
The Ambiguity of Education	110
The Ways of the Ancestors	113
Maintaining Social Relations	116
Approaching Urban Marginalization	118
Chapter 7. Life Stories About Finding New Foundations	121
Justine	121
Mihantra	125
Harimalala	129
Searching for a Better Life	132
Chapter 8. Restoring Dignity	135
Enhancing Human Dignity	136
Ethics and Belonging	140
Reinterpreting the Ways of the Ancestors	143

CONTENTS

VII

Christianizing Fomban-Drazana	145
Continuity and Discontinuity	148
Local Culture and Global Values	149
Changing Religion and Maintaining Local Identity	152
Religious Added Value	155
Notes	159
Bibliography	165
Index	173