

WARSAW STUDIES IN POLITICS AND SOCIETY 1

Izabela Handzlik / Łukasz Sorokowski (eds.)

Found in Multiculturalism

Acceptance or Challenge?

 SWPS

 PETER LANG
EDITION

Contents

Acknowledgements	7
Preface	9
 Michał Dąbrowski
The language of the social world at a border crossing	13
 Antoni Górny
Thank you for talking to me, Africa: Multiculturalism and black urban America	37
 Izabela Handzlik
Muslim communities in the United States: A multicultural puzzle	63
 Anja van Heelsum
Moroccan associations in the Netherlands: how organisation leaders deal with the stigmatisation of the Moroccan community	91
 Zuzanna Jakubowska
The Spanish expedition to Easter Island, 1770: Original documents and their rendition by Bolton Glanvill Corney	107
 Anna Jawor
Is a rainbow society possible? Sociological challenges in the age of postmodern multiculturalism	121
 Dolores Morondo Taramundi
Is multiculturalism bad for women, still? Persisting dilemmas in cultural and religious accommodation in Europe	141
 Emma Oki
On being Asian: East-Asian Americans and Canadians in selected North American multicultural graphic novels	159

Natalia Pastewska-Sorokowska

African rhythm, Cuban soul: The musical heritage of slavery in Cuba 175

Eduardo J. Ruiz-Vieytez

Definitional trends in the legal management of national and religious minorities (diversity) 195

Łukasz Sorokowski

Between nationhood and statehood, unionism and nationalism:
Scotland's identity politics in the devolution discourse since the 1950s 215

Aleksandra Wycisk

Controversies over Polish city marketing strategies 239

Notes on the contributors 259