

EXPRESSING POST-SECULAR CITIZENSHIP

A MADRASA, AN ETHIC AND A COMPREHENSIVE DOCTRINE

Zahraa McDonald

PETER LANG

Contents

Preface	vii
Acknowledgements	xi
CHAPTER ONE
Comprehending the public sphere	I
1.1 Introduction	I
1.2 Marginalisation and the post-secular	3
1.3 John Rawls: an overlapping consensus	8
1.4 Conclusion	11
CHAPTER TWO
Doctrine in a religious ethic	13
2.1 Introduction	13
2.2 Framing religious doctrines	14
2.3 Conclusion	30
CHAPTER THREE
Doctrine in Islamic education	33
3.1 Introduction	33
3.2 Deobandi education movement	34
3.3 Conclusion	50
CHAPTER FOUR
Madrasa Warda: An association of the Deobandi education movement	53
4.1 Introduction	53

4.2	Introducing Madrasa Warda	54
4.3	Major participant categories	56
4.4	The curriculum	61
4.5	Conclusion	79
CHAPTER FIVE
	A lesson in perfecting character	81
5.1	Introduction	81
5.2	Orientation to God	82
5.3	Practical faith: Perfecting character	84
5.4	Faithful womanhood	94
5.5	Conclusion	107
CHAPTER SIX
	Religious ethic as comprehensive doctrine: Engaging in the post-secular public sphere	109
6.1	Introduction	109
6.2	Individuals as members of religious communities	110
6.3	Individuals engaging in the public sphere	117
6.4	Conclusion	120
	References	123
	Index	129