

Studies on Ancient Moral and Political Philosophy 1

What is Up to Us?

Studies on Agency and Responsibility in Ancient Philosophy

von

Edited by Pierre Destrée, Ricardo Salles

1.

Academia Verlag St. Augustin bei Bonn 2014

Verlag C.H. Beck im Internet:

www.beck.de

ISBN 978 3 89665 634 6

Zu Leseprobe

schnell und portofrei erhältlich bei beck-shop.de DIE FACHBUCHHANDLUNG

Table of Contents

Pierre Destrée, Ricardo Salles and Marco Zingano Introduction	1
Monte Ransome Johnson Changing our minds: Democritus on what is up to us	7
Pierre Destrée How can our fate be up to us? Plato and the myth of Er	25
Dorothea Frede Free will in Aristotle?	39
Susanne Bobzien Aristotle's Nicomachean Ethics 1113b7-8 and free choices	59
Susan Sauvé Meyer Aristotle on what is up to us and what is contingent	75
Javier Echeñique Aristotle's appraisability compatibilism and accountability incompatibilism	91
Katja Maria Vogt I shall do what I did: Stoic views on action	107
Laura Liliana Gómez Chrysippean compatibilistic theory of fate, what is up to us, and moral responsibility	121
Jean-Baptiste Gourinat Adsensio in nostra potestate : 'from us' and 'up to us' in ancient Stoicism – a plea for reassessment	141
Emmanuele Vimercati Panaetius on self-knowledge and moral responsibility	151
Ricardo Salles Epictetus and the causal conception of moral responsibility and what is eph' hêmin	169
Marcelo D. Boeri Present time and indifferents: making room for 'what depends on us' in Marcus Aurelius	183

Marco Zingano
Alexander and Aristotle on character and action	199
Pierre-Marie Morel
The Epicurean ‘up to us’: not to be proved	221
Stefano Maso
Motus animi voluntarius.
The Ciceronian Epicurus from libertarian free will to free choice	235
Lloyd P. Gerson
Moral responsibility and what is ‘up to us’ in Plotinus	251
Daniela Patrizia Taormina
Choice (hairesis), self-determination (to autexousion) and what is in our power (to eph’ hêmin) in Porphyry’s interpretation of the myth of Er	265
Mauro Bonazzi
Middle Platonists on fate and human autonomy: a confrontation with the Stoics	283
Christoph Horn
How close is Augustine’s liberum arbitrium to the concept of to eph’ hêmin ?	295
Carlos Steel
Human or divine freedom: Proclus on what is up to us	311
Christian Wildberg
The will and its freedom: Epictetus and Simplicius on what is up to us	329
Michael Frede
The eph’ hêmin in ancient philosophy	351
Index Locorum	365