

STUDIES IN SOCIAL SCIENCES, PHILOSOPHY
AND HISTORY OF IDEAS 9

Wojciech Klimczyk / Agata Świerzowska (eds.)

Music and Genocide

PETER LANG
EDITION

Table of Contents

Wojciech Klimczyk Foreword.....	7
OUVERTURE	21
M. J. Grant, Mareike Jacobs, Rebecca Möllemann, Simone Christine Münz, and Cornelia Nuxoll Music, the “Third Reich”, and “The 8 Stages of Genocide”	23
PART I – TESTIMONIES.....	69
Arman Goharinasab & Azadeh Latifkar Geok Tepe Muğam: A Musical Narrative of Turkmen Massacre in 1881	71
Katarzyna Naliwajek-Mazurek The Functions of Music within the Nazi System of Genocide in Occupied Poland.....	83
Joanna Pośluszna & Łukasz Pośluszny The Aural Landscape of Majdanek	105
Kirsten Dyck White-Power Music and the Memory of the Holocaust	121
INTERLUDE	139
Leszek Sosnowski The Holocaust – the Code of Death without the Alphabet of Life	141
PART II – TRIBUTES	153
Ralph Buchenhorst “... as if the shame before the victims would be offended” – Adorno’s Verdict on Arnold Schoenberg’s A Survivor from Warsaw	155

Matt Lawson

Towards a Critical Understanding of Representational and Semantic Issues within Hanns Eisler's Score for Nuit et Brouillard (1955).....	171
--	-----

Joanna Posłuszna

"We remember": The Trauma of the Holocaust in Krzysztof Penderecki's Work.....	189
---	-----

CODA	209
------------	-----

Wojciech Klimczyk

Impossible Music? On Genocide as Silence (Rwanda, Auschwitz and Beyond)	211
--	-----

Lawrence Kramer

Afterword: Genocide, Music, and the Name	227
--	-----

Contributors.....	239
-------------------	-----