

Paolo Braga

Words in Action

Forms and techniques of film dialogue

Peter Lang

Contents

Introduction: The perfect dialogue.....	1
The different role of dialogue in theatre and in cinema.....	6
Sight is fast and reliable.....	8
Stage-to-film adaptations prove the importance of terseness	8
Three functions of dialogue in film	13
The aim of this book	17
Acknowledgements.....	17
 Chapter 1: Dialogue and conflict	19
Dramatic dialogue and its features.....	20
Dialogue is action.....	20
Dialogue pushes the story forward.....	21
Dialogue is dynamic.....	21
Dialogue has deep implications	22
Dialogue has structure.....	23
Dialogue is succinct.....	24
Dialogue has a climax	25
Dialogue changes the fate of the character	26
Dialogue surprises.....	27
Dialogue tends to follow a set pattern.....	27
Three scenes.....	29
Munich . “Mazeltov”	30
Lethal Weapon . “You really like my wife’s cooking?”	35
The Best of Youth . “Then let’s get you signed out!”	40
Direct attack and sudden backlash.....	45
The counterattack.....	54
Dialogue, conflict and values.....	70
John Adams . “My sons...”.....	82

Chapter 2: Dialogue and subtext	91
Dramatic subtext	97
Why use subtext	99
Reason one: it reflects real life.....	99
Reason two: subtext creates tension.....	99
Reason three: subtext holds an audience's interest	101
Reason four: subtext can be acted out.....	102
Two kinds of subtext	103
Deep subtext.....	104
The Next Three Days. "Goodbye"	106
Strategic subtext.....	109
The West Wing. "We're gonna get the names of the damn commandments right."	116
Non-shared subtext	125
Manipulation	125
The irony of fate.....	127
Crash. "Is there a problem, Cam?"	129
The Lives of Others. "I am your audience"	134
Chapter 3: Dialogue and exposition.....	141
The problem of exposition	143
The screenwriting techniques to solve the problem of exposition.....	144
Dramatization of exposition.....	145
Use of irony.....	153
Use of examples	160
The right moment for exposition	170
How to reveal themes in dialogue	180
Verbal setups and payoffs, taglines, key words and metaphorical texture	182
Batman Begins. "Justice is about harmony"	188
Theme in dialogue	189
Metaphorical texture	193

Munich . “Break bread with me”	195
Theme through visual metaphors	196
Subtheme in dialogue	196
Subtheme through verbal metaphors	198
Metaphorical texture	199
Dialogue and revealing metaphors	200
Collateral . “Guy. Gets on a subway. Dies”	200
The revealing metaphor	205
The Dark Knight . “Because he can take it...”	208
The revealing metaphor	210
Filmography	215
References	219