

Competition Law Challenges in the Next Decade

Sofia Oliveira Pais (ed.)

P.I.E. Peter Lang

CONTENTS

Preface	9
----------------------	---

PART I. ANTITRUST PRIVATE ENFORCEMENT: NATIONAL PERSPECTIVES ON THE DAMAGES DIRECTIVE

Competition law: achievements and challenges	13
António Ferreira Gomes

Antitrust private enforcement and collective redress in Portugal	19
Sofia Oliveira Pais

Reflections on damage actions – the Asphalt case	35
Petri Kuoppamäki

Is this really a reform to facilitate follow-on actions for antitrust damages?	59
Anna Piszcz

Private enforcement of competition law on trial – two study cases	75
Henrique Sousa Antunes

Actions for damages under Portuguese Law for infringements of the competition law	89
Agostinho Guedes

PART II. EXCLUSIONARY ABUSES: RECENT TRENDS

Upside down: The EU jurisprudence on aftermarkets	101
Paul Nihoul

Distinguishing legitimate price competition from unlawful exclusionary behaviour	123
Alison Jones

Exclusionary abuses: refusal to license intellectual property rights	159
Rosa Greaves and Svetlana Nasibyan

Remedies and Article 102 TFEU..... 179
Rita Leandro Vasconcelos

PART III. STATE AID: NEW REGULATIONS

The evolution of the “effects on trade” and “distortion of competition” requirements under the EU State aid regime..... 197
Manuel Fontaine Campos

The hard side of soft power – the Portuguese Competition Authority recommendation to the Government on stranded costs in the electricity sector..... 215
Mariana Tavares

Competition in the aviation sector: the problem with public financing of airports and airlines 229
Isabel Fernández Torres

The Portuguese Development Financial Institution and State aids..... 247
Nuno Castro Marques