CONTENTS

Preface: Discomforting Conversations in the Anthropocene ........................................ vii
Acknowledgements ........................................................................................................ xvii
List of Contributors ........................................................................................................ xxi

Part 1: Back to Basics: The Limits and Potential of Law and Governance in the Anthropocene

1. The Role of Sustainable Development and the Associated Principles of Environmental Law and Governance in the Anthropocene ................................................................. 3
   Jonathan Verschuuren

2. Reimagining International Environmental Law in the Anthropocene .......... 31
   Tim Stephens

3. Doing Time—The Temporalities of Environmental Law ....................... 55
   Benjamin J Richardson

Part 2: Radical Ontologies and Epistemologies for the Anthropocene

4. ‘Anthropocene, Capitalocene, Chthulucene’: Re-encountering Environmental Law and its ‘Subject’ with Haraway and New Materialism ......................................................... 77
   Anna Grear

5. Critical Environmental Law and the Double Register of the Anthropocene: A Biopolitical Reading ................................................................. 97
   Vito De Lucia

6. Critical Environmental Law in the Anthropocene ................................ 117
   Andreas Philippopoulos-Mihalopoulos

7. Materiality and the Ontological Turn in the Anthropocene: Establishing a Dialogue between Law, Anthropology and Eco-Philosophy .......................... 137
   Saskia Vermeylen
Contents

Part 3: Planetary Stewardship and Global Justice Reimagined

8. Global Environmental Governance in the Anthropocene: Setting and Achieving Global Goals .............................................................165
   Maria Ivanova and Natalia Escobar-Pemberthy

9. Global Environmental Constitutionalism in the Anthropocene ...............189
   Louis J Kotzé

10. Global Justice in the Anthropocene .....................................................219
    Carmen G Gonzalez

11. The Imperative of Ecological Integrity: Conceptualising a Fundamental Legal Norm for a New ‘World System’ in the Anthropocene .....................................................................................241
    Klaus Bosselmann

Part 4: Possible Futures in Critical ‘Spaces’

12. Of Human Responsibility: Considering the Human/Environment Relationship and Ecosystems in the Anthropocene .............................................269
    Karen Morrow

13. The Corporation and the Anthropocene..............................................289
    Sally Wheeler

14. Judging the Anthropocene: Transformative Adjudication in the Anthropocene Epoch .................................................................309
    Lynda Collins

15. The Emergence of Transnational Environmental Law in the Anthropocene .........................................................................................329
    Jolene Lin

16. The End of European Union Environmental Law: An Environmental Programme for the Anthropocene ..................................................353
    Han Somsen

Index .......................................................................................................................373