

CONTENTS

xiii	Editorial Notes
xv	Introduction
	QUESTION 106. THE NEW LAW OF THE GOSPEL IN ITSELF
3	Article 1. is the New Law a written law or an inward one?
7	Article 2. does it justify?
9	Article 3. should it have been given from the beginning of the world?
13	Article 4. is it to last until the end of the world?
	QUESTION 107. RELATIONSHIP OF THE NEW LAW AND THE OLD
21	Article 1. is the New Law distinct from the Old?
27	Article 2. does it fulfil the Old?
33	Article 3. is it contained in the Old?
37	Article 4. which is the more burdensome?
	QUESTION 108. CONTENT OF THE NEW LAW
41	Article 1. should the New Law enjoin or forbid external deeds?
47	Article 2. is it sufficient here in what it enjoins or forbids?
53	Article 3. is it satisfactory in its instruction about interior acts?
61	Article 4. is it proper for it to add counsels to precepts?
	QUESTION 109. THE NEED FOR GRACE
67	Article 1. can man know any truth without grace?
73	Article 2. can he will or do any good?
77	Article 3. can he love God above all things?
81	Article 4. can he observe the precepts of the Law?
85	Article 5. can he merit eternal life?
87	Article 6. can a man prepare himself for grace without grace?
93	Article 7. can he rise up again from sin?
95	Article 8. can he avoid sin?
101	Article 9. can someone who has already obtained grace do good and avoid sin by himself without the further assistance of grace?
105	Article 10. does a man established in grace need the assistance of grace in order to persevere?
	QUESTION 110. NATURE OF GRACE
109	Article 1. does grace set up something in the soul?

Cambridge University Press

978-0-521-02938-4 - Summa Theologiae: Volume 30 - The Gospel of Grace,
(1a2ae. 106-114)

Cornelius Ernst O.P.

Table of Contents

More information

- 113 Article 2. is grace a quality?
- 117 Article 3. is grace different from infused virtue?
- 121 Article 4. the subject of grace

QUESTION III. DIVISIONS OF GRACE

- 125 Article 1. is grace satisfactorily divided into freely bestowed grace and sanctifying grace?
- 129 Article 2. the division of sanctifying grace into operative and co-operative;
- 133 Article 3. the division of sanctifying grace into prevenient and subsequent;
- 135 Article 4. the division of freely bestowed grace;
- 141 Article 5. the relationship between sanctifying grace and freely bestowed grace.

QUESTION II 2. CAUSE OF GRACE

- 145 Article 1. is God alone the efficient cause of grace?
- 147 Article 2. is some disposition for grace required on the part of the receiver, by way of an act of free choice?
- 151 Article 3. can such a disposition constitute a necessity for grace?
- 155 Article 4. is grace equal in everyone?
- 157 Article 5. can someone know that he has grace?

QUESTION II 3. JUSTIFICATION

- 163 Article 1. what is the justification of the unrighteous?
- 167 Article 2. is an infusion of grace required for it?
- 169 Article 3. is some movement of free choice required?
- 173 Article 4. is a movement of faith required?
- 177 Article 5. is there required a movement of choice rejecting sin?
- 181 Article 6. does it include the forgiveness of sins?
- 183 Article 7. is there a temporal order or does it take place in a moment?
- 189 Article 8. on the natural sequence of all that contributes to justification;
- 193 Article 9. is justification the greatest of all God's works?
- 197 Article 10. is it miraculous?

QUESTION II 4. MERIT

- 201 Article 1. can man merit something from God?
- 205 Article 2. can one merit eternal life without grace?
- 207 Article 3. can one by grace merit eternal life in strict equivalence?

Cambridge University Press
978-0-521-02938-4 - Summa Theologiae: Volume 30 - The Gospel of Grace,
(1a2ae. 106-114)
Cornelius Ernst O.P.
Table of Contents
More information

---

211 Article 4. is grace the principle of merit by way of charity?
213 Article 5. can man merit for himself the first grace?
217 Article 6. can man merit it for someone else?
219 Article 7. can one merit for oneself restoration after falling?
223 Article 8. can one merit for oneself growth in grace or charity?
225 Article 9. can one merit final perseverance for oneself?
227 Article 10. do temporal blessings fall under merit?

APPENDICES

232 1. Grace and Saving History
236 2. Pelagianism
238 3. Justification
241 4. Merit
245 Glossary
249 Index of Scriptural References
252 General Index