Contents

Table of Cases

1. Introduction

2. Directive 93/13 and EC Consumer Law and Policy
   - A brief outline of Directive 93/13
   - The EC involvement in consumer policy and the roots of Directive 93/13
   - The rationale of the directive: the internal market argument
   - The consumer protection argument
   - The future of Directive 93/13

3. Unfair Terms Regulation: A Comparative Study
   - Overview
   - The rationale of unfair terms control in Italy and England
   - Implementation of Directive 93/13 in England and in Italy

4. Unfair Terms Control in England and Italy
   - Formal controls
   - Substantive controls
   - Different methods of adjudication

5. Subjective Scope of Application
   - The consumer in EC law
   - National traditions
   - Areas of conflict between the domestic and the European definitions
   - The business party

6. Application to Public Services
   - The national traditions
   - A ‘European’ approach to public services in Directive 93/13

7. Objective Scope of Application
   - Individually negotiated terms
   - ‘Core’ exclusions
   - Contracts relating to land
Contents

8. Formal and Substantive Controls 135
   Formal controls 135
   Substantive controls 143
   Different methods of adjudication 152

9. Conclusion: A European Tradition? 165
   Convergence and divergence in the interpretation of Directive 93/13 165
   The European Court of Justice as the engine of European integration? 168

Appendix I Directive 93/13 173

Appendix II National Legislation 185
   England 187
   France 206
   Germany 209
   Italy 217

Index 223