

Contents

|                                                     |         |
|-----------------------------------------------------|---------|
| List of figures                              | page ix |
| List of tables                               | x       |
| Preface                                      | xi      |
| 1 Stylized facts 1948–1990                          | 1       |
| 1. Economic growth                                  | 2       |
| 2. Structural change                                | 7       |
| 3. Macroeconomic stability                          | 9       |
| 2 1945–1948: establishing a liberal order           | 16      |
| 1. Post-war misery                                  | 17      |
| 2. The rise of Ordoliberalism                       | 26      |
| 3. The liberal reforms of June 1948                 | 36      |
| 3 1948–1960: spontaneous growth                     | 45      |
| A. Overcoming capital shortage and unemployment     | 45      |
| 1. The critical period 1949/50                      | 46      |
| 2. 1950–1960: the demand side                       | 63      |
| 3. 1950–1960: the supply-side miracle               | 68      |
| B. Returning to the world market                    | 88      |
| 1. The dismal starting-point                        | 91      |
| 2. European liberalization and the Marshall Plan    | 95      |
| 3. Turning into a pacemaker for liberalization      | 106     |
| 4. The emergence of ‘little Europe’                 | 116     |
| 4 1960–1973: towards managed growth                 | 125     |
| A. Overemployment at an undervalued currency        | 126     |
| 1. Labour shortage – facts, causes and consequences | 126     |
| 2. The heyday of demand management                  | 139     |
| 3. A deteriorating supply side                      | 154     |
| B. Coping with external constraints                 | 164     |
| 1. The economic division of Western Europe          | 166     |
| 2. The erosion of the Bretton Woods system          | 176     |

|      |                                                 |     |
|------|-------------------------------------------------|-----|
| viii | Contents                                        |     |
| 5    | 1973–1989: facing the slowdown                  | 185 |
|      | A. Persistent unemployment and the growth slack | 186 |
|      | 1. The demand side: a tale of two cycles        | 186 |
|      | 2. The nature of unemployment                   | 195 |
|      | 3. Roots of the growth slack                    | 207 |
|      | B. Painful adjustment to external challenges    | 222 |
|      | 1. Protectionist temptations                    | 222 |
|      | 2. The current account debate                   | 236 |
|      | 3. International monetary coordination          | 250 |
| 6    | Two cheers for German unification               | 256 |
|      | 1. The heritage of a command system             | 256 |
|      | 2. Unification and its immediate aftermath      | 262 |
|      | 3. The prospects of the eastern German economy  | 269 |
| 7    | A new miracle?                                  | 273 |
|      | References                               | 280 |
|      | Index                                    | 297 |