

Contents

Acknowledgements ix

Chapter 1. Stroke: An introduction to the problem 1

Incidence of stroke 4 Survival after stroke 5

Consequences of stroke 6 Carers: their contribution and some consequences for their lives 10

Chapter 2. The Greenwich stroke study 13

Identification of stroke patients 14 The interviews 16

Response to interviews 18 The patients 19

The supporters 25 Summary 29

Chapter 3. Coming into medical care: the first month after stroke 32

The onset of the stroke 32 Seeking medical help 34

Hospital referrals 40 Disability 1 month after the stroke 43

Attitudes of patients and supporters to the stroke 49

Expectations for recovery 51 Summary 57

Chapter 4. Hospital care and rehabilitation 59

What patients liked and disliked about hospital life 59

Rehabilitation in hospital 63 Therapy for speech-impaired patients 78 Ambitions for the future 81 Worries about the future 83 Summary 85

Chapter 5. Survival, physical disability and health 88

Survival 88 Physical disability 91

Physical disability at 18 months after the stroke 102

The health of patients and supporters 106 Summary 111

Chapter 6. Support in the community 114

Leaving hospital 114 Home 116 Suitability of the housing 118
Sources of help and support 121 Support for patients 122
Support for supporters 127 Health and social services: services for patients 130 Health and social services: services for supporters 137
Summary 141

Chapter 7. The effects of stroke on social, family and personal life 144

Housework 144 Social activities 146 Emotional distress 155
Social isolation 157 Stigma 158 The patient as a person 159
Relationship between supporter and patient 162 The family life of patients with communication problems 167 Effects on the social and personal life of supporters 171 Summary 176

Chapter 8. Caring and coping with stroke 179

Attitudes to caring 179 Coping with caring 182
The burden of caring 188 Coping by supporters 194 Preparation for coping with stroke 196 Help and advice for carers 197
Assessments of recovery after stroke 201 Factors influencing assessment of recovery 205 Satisfaction with recovery 208
Enjoyment of, and satisfaction with, life 211 Summary 214

Chapter 9. Resources for coping with stroke 217

The experience of stroke 218 Help and support from services 223
Towards policies for care 228

Appendix. Measurement and scoring of variables 234

References 249

Index 258