Contents

Abbreviations
xxi

Table of Cases
xxvii

1. Reflections on the State of Comparative Law I: The Twilight of the Heroes
   1. Of Ghettoes and Smart Neighbourhoods
   2. Decline
      (a) The Absence of the Defining Treatise, the Inspiring Thesis, the Invention of a New Methodology
      (b) The Comparatists in Britain and the USA
      (c) Leaving a Working Method
      (d) An Epilogue to the Idea of Decline

2. Reflections on the State of Comparative Law II: The Death of Heroes and the Era of Societal Needs
   1. The Emergence of a Strategy
   2. The Rabel Method Over Time
      (a) Particularism
      (b) Statics
      (c) Process
      (d) Neglect of Public Law
   3. Functional Specificity: More of the Same Medicine
   4. Old (Bad) Habits and New (Silly) Threats
      (a) Eurocentrism: is it a Vice?
      (b) The Opacity of Post-Modernism
      (c) A Suffocating Embrace
      (d) The Shared Error of the Old and New Schools
   5. From Heroes to Movements of Contemporary Globalisation

3. Spreading the Gospel (and the Name of the Evangelist) 75

1. Aims to be Pursued 75
   (a) The Importance of Language 76
   (b) Where One is Cited 77
   (c) Inflating Reputation 79

2. Warnings and Caveats 80

3. Some Raw Data 86

4. Drawing the First Lessons 90
   (a) Lesson 1: Citations Need to be Adjusted Downwards; Each Author to be Given Individual Attention 90
   (b) Lesson 2: Reputation and Legacy in Comparative Law 99
   (c) Lesson 3: The Power of School Citation and Promotion 102

5. The Situation in Germany 107
   (a) Positivistic Tradition 108
   (b) The Prevailing Methods of Interpretation 108
   (c) Competing Sources of Comparative Material 113
   (d) Comparative Law in the Field of Legislative Law Reform 114

6. The Case of South Africa 120

7. A Postscript 125

1. The Theory Put into Practice 157
2. The German Model 161
3. The Application of the German Idea to Greatorex 163
4. Unresolved Questions 164
5. The American Dimension 167
6. Some Tentative Conclusions 171

5. The Focused Approach in Public Law 183

1. Introduction 183
2. A Study in Parallel 184
Contents

3. The Reasoning of the Courts 187
4. In Search of a Rapprochement 188
   (a) Policy Reasons and Concepts in Decisions Involving the Liability of Public Bodies 189
   (b) A Divergence in Fundamental Philosophy? 194
5. Wider Conclusions 198

6. Reflecting on the Future: An Epilogue 209

Appendix 1: Correspondence Between Lord Atkin and Professor H C Gutteridge 225
Appendix 2: The German Approach 231
Appendix 3: Databases Searched 261

Index 267