Preface                                 v
List of Tables                         xvii
List of Figures                        xix
List of Illustrations                 xxiii

1 Introduction

PROFESSIONALISATION                   2
‘Amateur hour’                         2
Synthesis of policing evidence        4
Case complexity                        5
Workload                                6
CONTEXTUAL ACCOUNTS                   8
PURPOSE AND THEORY OF THE PRESENT RESEARCH  9
  The empirical basis                   11
  Longitudinal comparison               13

2 The Political Economy of Criminal Justice in the Mercantile Era

INTRODUCTION                           15
THE STRUCTURE OF SOCIETY               15
METHOD OF JUDICIAL GOVERNANCE          18
  Activist role of mayor and aldermen  20
  Offences and offending                22
  Private prosecutors                  28
  Police organisation                  30
  Special Justices                     31
  Grand Jury                           33
  The District Attorney                34
  Legal representation and the legal profession 36
  Role and importance of the (petit) jury 40
CONCLUSION                              42

3 Crime Detection and Investigation in General Sessions Prosecutions: 1800–1845

INTRODUCTION                           45
  Policing: watch and constables        45
6  Adjudication by Trial 1800–1845: Judge and Jury
INTRODUCTION 139
THE PROMINENCE OF THE JURY 139
  Charging the jury 141
  Jury deliberation and verdict 149
CONCLUSION 152

7  Adjudication by Guilty Plea
INTRODUCTION 153
THE PLEA PROCESS 153
  Recipe formula 155
  Absence of exogenous factors 156
  Acceptance of responsibility 158
  Fear of publicity 161
  Protestations of innocence or excuse 165
  Settlements 168
CONCLUSION 171

8  Sentencing in General Sessions
INTRODUCTION 173
THE AMBIT OF SENTENCING 173
  The framework of penalty 174
SENTENCING FACTORS 177
  Culpability 177
  Character of the defendant 178
  Sentencing tariffs: race, gender and ethnicity 182
SENTENCING PROCEDURE 185
  Public proceedings 185
  Evidence in mitigation 185
  The defendant’s statement 187
  Court investigation 189
  Discretion 189
CONCLUSION 192

9  The Mid-Century Political Economy of Justice and Transformation in Method of Case Disposition
INTRODUCTION 193
THE CITY AT MID-CENTURY 194
THE POLITICISATION OF COURTROOM ACTORS 197
  The District Attorney as political operative 197
  Judges 198
  Police magistrates 198
THE TRANSFORMATION IN METHOD OF DISPOSITION 200
OFFENCES AND OFFENDING 204
CASELOAD 209
Contents

Equivocal facts 290
Mitigating factors 295
Explicit official intervention 297
NO EVIDENT REASON 299
Crimes against property—lesser pleas 299
Crimes against property—attempts 302
Crimes against property: aggravating factors 303
Crimes against the person 304
Overall data analysis 305
CONCLUSION 306

13 Aggregate Justice and Social Control
INTRODUCTION 309
LEGITIMATION AND CRITICISM 309
Aggregate positivist criminology 315
Individual amelioration 321
CONCLUSION 324

14 Understanding System Transformation
INTRODUCTION 327
FUNCTIONALIST CRITIQUE 328
CONTEXTUALIST CRITIQUE 331
Historical method 332
Rethinking system transformation 333
CONCLUSION 337

Bibliography 339
Index 351