

Contents

Notes on Contributors	ix
Acknowledgments	xiv
Introduction: The Study of Rhetoric and Public Address Shawn J. Parry-Giles and J. Michael Hogan	1
Part I The History and Prospects of Rhetoric and Public Address	17
1 The History of Public Address as an Academic Study Martin J. Medhurst	19
2 Public Address Scholarship in the New Century: Achievements and Challenges David Zarefsky	67
3 Rhetorical Criticism 2009: A Study in Method Karlyn Kohrs Campbell	86
Part II Basic Research in Rhetoric and Public Address	109
4 Textual Recovery, Textual Discovery: Returning to Our Past, Imagining Our Future Davis W. Houck	111
5 The Processes and Challenges of Textual Authentication Robert N. Gaines	133
6 Archival Research and the American Presidency: The Political and Rhetorical Complexities of Presidential Records Shawn J. Parry-Giles	157
7 From Recovering Women's Words to Documenting Gender Constructs: Archival Research in the Twenty-First Century Susan Zaeske and Sarah Jedd	184

Part III Text and Context in Rhetoric and Public Address	203
8 The Racial Contexts of Public Address: Interpreting Violence During the Reconstruction Era Kirt H. Wilson	205
9 Lilies and Lavatory Paper: The Public and the Private in British Suffrage Archives Cheryl R. Jorgensen-Earp	229
10 Studying Visual Modes of Public Address: Lewis Hine's Progressive-Era Child Labor Rhetoric Cara A. Finnegan	250
11 Theory and Public Address: The Allusive Mr. Bush John M. Murphy	271
Part IV Questions of Effect in Rhetoric and Public Address	291
12 Jimmy Carter, Human Rights, and Instrumental Effects of Presidential Rhetoric Mary E. Stuckey	293
13 Analyzing Constitutive Rhetorics: The Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions and the "Principles of '98" James Jasinski and Jennifer R. Mercieca	313
Part V The Politics of Rhetoric and Public Address	343
14 Feminism and Public Address Research: Television News and the Constitution of Women's Liberation Bonnie J. Dow	345
15 The Problem of Race in Public Address Research: W. E. B. Du Bois and the Conflicted Aesthetics of Race Eric King Watts	373
16 Sexuality and Public Address: Rhetorical Pasts, Queer Theory, and Abraham Lincoln Charles E. Morris III	398
17 Public Address and the Revival of American Civic Culture J. Michael Hogan	422
Select Bibliography	448
Index	469