

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01669-8 - Twenty-Nine Years in the West Indies and Central Africa

Hope Masterton Waddell

Table of Contents

More information

Contents.

CHAPTER I.

1829.

Call to missionary work—Jamaica—Tropical scenery—Hampden congregation— Christmas revels—Description of Jamaica—Maroons—Slave insurrections— Earthquakes—Hurricanes—Sugar estate—Scenery—Established Church—Mis- sionaries—Cinnamon Hill—Lucea congregation—Green Island—Mountain station—Port Maria congregation	Page 15
--	------------

CHAPTER II.

1830, 1831.

Settled at Cornwall—Home supplies and oatmeal—First Sabbath and old people— Schools—Evening meetings—Estates to be visited—Interview with a proprietor —Marriage of slaves—Sacrament class—Preaching in Rose Hall Great House, Dun's Hole Wharf, Hampden congregation, and Trelawny Mountains—Death of Mrs. B.—Estate overseers—Interview with a planting attorney—State of congre- gation	30
---	----

CHAPTER III.

1832.

Rumours of a servile war—Militia musters—Advice to my congregation—Christmas— Troubles begun—Palmyra on fire—The fool and his sense—Terrible night—Work or no work—Retire to Falmouth—Country distracted—Carlton people and family —Alarm at Cornwall—1st January 1832 in Falmouth—Militia service declined— Visits to country districts to quiet the people—Baptist missionaries—Renewed visits to country districts—The fool and his folly—Return to Cornwall—Visits to estates people—A wife to fit a gown—Progress and suppression of the insurrec- tion—Executions—Negro humanity—Causes of the rebellion—Missionaries accused, and penalties endured	50
--	----

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01669-8 - Twenty-Nine Years in the West Indies and Central Africa

Hope Masterton Waddell

Table of Contents

More information

viii

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER IV.

1832, 1833.

	Page
Consequences of the insurrection—The slaves suffer and decline from religion— Sunday work—Dealings with overseers—Demoralization—Cornwall and Cinnamon Hill estates—Petition for the Sabbath—Colonial Church union—Address to new Governor—Colonial Union, its persecutions—Scottish mission falsely accused, defended, and acquitted—Montego Bay congregation—Preaching at Retreat Pen—Horses lost—A river head—Church formed at Cornwall—Death of brother Chamberlain—Journey to Spanish Town—Night wanderings—An attorney repents—First church building—State of congregation, and correction of an error	70

CHAPTER V.

1834, 1835.

Voyage to Scotland—Proceedings at home—Scottish Missionary Society—New system of Church missions—Returned to Jamaica—Ride to Cornwall—Congregation and schools—Immigrants—Arrival of Mrs. Waddell—Visiting estates—Evening meetings in negro houses—Planter jealousy—Bible Thomson—Christian Union—New Church members—Brutus—Mary	91
---	----

CHAPTER VI.

1836, 1837.

Church collections—Presbytery formed—Eldership—Temperance society—A needful offence—Family soirees—Committee—A pattern wife—Juvenile society—Care of children—Visits to estates—Various characters—Escape of Mrs. Waddell	109
---	-----

CHAPTER VII.

1837, 1838.

Site for new church—Laying of first stone by Presbytery—Voluntary labour—Difficult work—Church finished and opened—New school-house—An angry father—Begging anecdotes—Journey to Spanish Town—Scenery—Native ministry—Cinnamon Hill—Obea man—Myal woman—Myal system—Catching the shadow—Lost shadow—The "leader" system—A wanderer—A bully—Fruits of labour	125
---	-----

CHAPTER VIII.

1838-1840.

Apprenticeship and freedom—Preparations—Longing—The great day—Disorders checked—Disputes about wages—Bad effects—Free villages—Mount Horeb settled—Wild country—Swimming a river—A work of faith—Mr. Kay—Aggression resisted—Lamb's River—Wedding party—German immigrants—An old hunter—Mount Zion Church—Contributions—Temperance meeting—Festival of troubles and joys—A black speech and white reply—Total abstinence—A good planter—Various prayer meetings—Rose Hill village—A house built with God's money—The slave-ship, its capture, and cargo—Death of young B—	144
---	-----

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01669-8 - Twenty-Nine Years in the West Indies and Central Africa

Hope Masterton Waddell

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

ix

CHAPTER IX.

1841-1844.

	Page
Journey to south side—Gentle Hill and Fairfield—Cold water system—Journey to Mile Gully—The forest and subterranean rivers—Thunder storm in the forest—Death of Mr. Patterson—Infamous conduct exposed—Presbytery of July 1841—Fatal year—Domestic scenes—Journey to Port Maria—Outbreak of Myalism; its causes, and strange proceedings in various places—Remonstrance with Baptist missionaries—Cane fields on fire—Young people begin to fall away—White and black immigration both failed—Better system proposed—State of congregation ... ..	179

CHAPTER X.

1841-1845.

Mission to Africa—Buxton's book—Resolutions to begin—Causes of delay—Friends of the cause multiply—Correspondence with Calabar—Appointed to that mission—Parting scenes—Wrecked on the Caymans—Scenes and services there—Passage to New Orleans—The Mississippi—Our coloured maid servant there, and other occurrences—Novel scene at the mouth of the river—Arrived at Liverpool—Present state of our Jamaica mission ... ..	206
---	-----

CHAPTER XI.

1845.

The Past of Africa ... ..	225
---------------------------	-----

CHAPTER XII.

1846.

The Calabar Mission adopted and encouraged at home—Arrangement with Baptist Society—Sailed in our own mission ship—Long-continued storm, various dangers, and God's care of us—Porto Praya—Proceedings there—A sea-fight—Cape Palmas—First tornado—Cape Coast Castle, Wesleyan Mission, and King Agri—Whydah—The Delta and its haze—Fernando Po and Baptist Mission ... ..	228
--	-----

CHAPTER XIII.

1846.

Disarrangements—Calabar river—King Eyo's honesty and the choice—Duke Town, and King Eyamba—Creek Town, and King Eyo's house—Meeting with Eyamba and his chiefs—Mission ground—Henshaw Town—Eyamba's trade-yard—The market—Royal dinner at Duke Town—King Eyo's public dinner—Palaver House—Devil-house—Old Town and its chief—Presented Bible to Eyo—Eyamba opposes a school at Creek Town—Building mission-house at Duke Town—A lesson in marketing—A great man begging—Big Adam's thief—A troop of young ladies—Boco Cobham offers girls to us—Young Eny Cobham, and the value of a grave—Egbo runner—Mr. Young loses his breakfast—Eyamba's daughter—Royal play—Devil goes on cruise—Egbo Jack's feast—Preaching on board ship—Human sacrifices, and reproofs thereof—Eyamba in his carriage—Mission-house completed, and another begun—King War and our carpenters—Grand Egbo show at Creek town—Duke Town School—Medical attendant ... ..	241
--	-----

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01669-8 - Twenty-Nine Years in the West Indies and Central Africa

Hope Masterton Waddell

Table of Contents

More information

x

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER XIV.

1846.

	Page
Visit to Bonny—Description of that place, its king, and people—Return to Calabar—King Eyamba arrested, and commotion thereon—Preaching at Creek Town, with King Eyo for interpreter—Lithographic press in use—Antica Cobham's daughter—Young Eny Cobham's death—His brother's death—Antica's son and slave—Suicide—Tiger—Eyamba's expedition to Omon—Women rule—His return—Explosion in the market—A school boy—Trouble with carpenters—Meetings at Creek Town—Eyamba's feast—Meeting in his yard—Human sacrifices for John Duke, and our remonstrance—Left Calabar for a season ...	268

CHAPTER XV.

1846, 1847.

Arrangements in Clarence—Preached on board H.M.S.S. Hydra —United prayer meeting—Mixed crew for voyage to Jamaica—Consequent troubles—Run along the Line—The Amazon and Orinoco felt far in the ocean—Trinidad—Jamaica—Proceedings there—Sailed again for Calabar with new agents and supplies—Leak in ship—Wrecks about Cuba—Mast sprung—Man overboard—The "Grassy Sea"—Suspected—Driven by an east wind into the "swamps"—Three weeks becalmed—The porpoise—The petrel—A land bird—Current—Quarrels of master and mate—Difficulties of a mission ship—Meet bad news in Clarence—Reached Calabar river ...	296
--	-----

CHAPTER XVI.

1847.

Early history of Calabar people, and affairs of Creek Town, Old Town, and New or Duke Town—Rivalries of Eyamba and Eyo—Honesty—Original government patriarchal—Egbo society introduced—Kingly rank and title adopted—King Calabar or High Priest—Slavery there—How free men become slaves—How hardly slaves become free again—Want of public law for all—Employment of slaves—Punishment of them—Foreign slave trade and its effects—The "Tibara," or slave hunters of the interior ...	309
---	-----

CHAPTER XVII.

1847.

Calabar river and harbour—Parrot island important—High road to the interior—Mangrove trees and their use—Dry soil—Farms and productions—Hospitality—Salutations—Native houses and furniture—Handicrafts—Trade—Religious ideas and customs—Domestic animals, and wild beasts—Seasons and climate—A boy's lively play ...	322
---	-----

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01669-8 - Twenty-Nine Years in the West Indies and Central Africa

Hope Masterton Waddell

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xi

CHAPTER XVIII.

1847.

	Page
Death of King Eyamba—Dreadful doings—Efforts of the missionaries to prevent —Missionary arrangements—Operations at Creek Town—Preaching on board ship—King Eyo challenged to war—Why?—His answer—Magic lantern—Abia- idiong detected—The death of Mr. Jameson—Young Eyo's letter—School-house improved—Sabbath services at Creek Town—Girls attend school—Native langu- age studied—Clothing introduced—Singing—School helpers—Visit of French commodore—Funeral rites for Tom Honesty; their nature and tendency ...	336

CHAPTER XIX.

1847, 1848.

Mission-house at Creek Town—Distant Mountains—Removing or remaining during the smoke season—Results of both plans—Excursions to various places—Caught in a tornado down the river—Visit of H.M.S. Bittern —Ndok and Nabikim—Christ- mas observances—Marriage of our carpenter—A Calabar marriage—Young Eyo's majority—King Eyo's expedition to Omon—Visit of H.M.S. Favourite —Refugees in mission-house—Eclipse of the moon—Sabbath services—Why Jesus was poor —How to grow rich—To make bad slaves good—Their treatment—Dangers from them—Examples—Calabar fables—The resurrection—The new birth—Praying to the dead—Famine—Desire for children—Bad customs hinder increase ...	359
--	-----

CHAPTER XX.

1848, 1849.

Return to Scotland—Letter from Young Eyo—New mission ship and fellow-labourers —Voyage back—Monrovia—A Kroo Town—Whales—A slaver—Bonny bar—The Calabar spit—Archibong, king of Duke Town—Welcome to Creek Town—Young Eyo—The school—Evening classes—The Ekpenyong discarded—A disturbed Sabbath—Vaccination—Family morals and tragedies—Funeral ceremonies—In- terview with the rioters—Intercession for offending slaves—Sermon on forgive- ness—Catechising children—Visit of H.M.S. Rattler —An Egbo law against human sacrifices required ...	384
--	-----

CHAPTER XXI.

1850.

Mate of mission ship—French and English steamers in Clarence—A royal tug—Visit to Bonny—Its king; parliament-house; colonies; pilot—Grounded coming out —Sabbath in George's bay, Fernando Po—Return to Calabar—King Eyo's weekly dinner—Conduct of his guests—King of all Calabar—Revisited Bonny—Diffi- culties of channel in the smokes—A good Sabbath—White ladies and child there —School—Explorations—New Calabar—Return to Old Calabar—Human sacrifices abolished by Egbo law—Old Town not included—Visit to old Willy Tom at his farm ...	407
--	-----

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01669-8 - Twenty-Nine Years in the West Indies and Central Africa

Hope Masterton Waddell

Table of Contents

More information

xii

CONTENTS

CHAPTER XXII.

1850.

	Page
Horrid doings at Creek Town—Dealings with King Eyo and others—Duties of masters and servants—"Free emigration scheme," and slave trade—Distress of Baptist mission at Clarence, and our visit thither—Egbo laws, and dealings with King Eyo about them—Sunday markets abolished—Church building begun at Creek Town—Queer scenes—Letter about schools and twin mothers ... ..	427

CHAPTER XXIII.

1850.

Human sacrifices at Ebunda —Visit of inquiry and results—Discourse with women there—Alarm of Guinea Company people and mode of dealing with them—Sad story of Eshen Ita—Medical aid in missions—Explorations of rivers—Native jealousy of our movements—Visit to Ureot —Its state and history—An aerolite there—Many languages ... ..	444
--	-----

CHAPTER XXIV.

1851.

Visit to a farm—Expedition to Omon —Repulsed at Itu —Meetings and occurrences at Omon —Revisited Itu —Visited Clarence —A brig sunk in a tornado—Executions at Creek Town—A discarded wife; her fault and punishment—Our efforts on her behalf—Her subsequent improvement—The Qua River farm people and covenant of blood—They alarm Duke Town and the supercargoes—Consul Bee-croft arrives, and arranges matters with them—Egbo law against covenants of blood; comments thereon ... ..	462
--	-----

CHAPTER XXV.

1851.

Trial for witchcraft in Creek Town—Destruction of twins—Upheld by women—Great meeting on board ship about it—Polygamy and Sabbath breaking—Discussions concerning these things—Sunday services disturbed—Young Eyo irregular—The King's growing knowledge of divine truth—The law and gospel ... ..	480
---	-----

CHAPTER XXVI.

1852.

Death of King Archibong—Dreadful doings in Duke Town—"Blood men"—Some of the chiefs there escape for their lives to Creek Town—King Eyo goes and restores order—King's house at Creek Town burned—His own good conduct—Egbo laws encourage crimes—Young Antica Cobham's brutality—Other examples—Native trial for libel—My house boy—Conversation with Egbo Jack, and meeting in his yard—Faction fight—Egbo Jack's blasphemies—Law against family quarrels ... ..	496
--	-----

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01669-8 - Twenty-Nine Years in the West Indies and Central Africa

Hope Masterton Waddell

Table of Contents

More information

CONTENTS.

xiii

CHAPTER XXVII.

1852.

Page

Fate of Mr. Chisholm—Many boats and crews lost—Twins saved at Old Town, and Egbo blown on mission-house there—Twins saved at Creek Town with King Eyo's help—Thieves and punishments—Young Eyo's letter—Consecrates his house to God—Mixes in country customs—Opposes his sister Ansa—Opposed by his father—Ill effects of his unsteadiness—Use of interpreters—Books in the Efik tongue—Falling health—Fernando Po; address to Mr. Beecroft—Voyage to England, and incidents thereof—"Billy overboard, sir"—Lying-to in a fair wind—Fog in the Channel—God hears prayer, and shows our way ... 509

CHAPTER XXVIII.

1853, 1854.

Letter from the mission carpenter—Letter from Eshen Eyo Honesty—Baptisms at Calabar—Letter from Young Eyo—Return to Calabar; fellow passengers; and places called at on our way—Madeira, Teneriffe, Goree, Bathurst, Sierra Leone, Monrovia, Cape Coast Castle, Acre, Lagos, Clarence—King Peppel of Bonny—Premature baptisms at Creek Town—Letter from a native—School labours—Difficulties between the King and young converts—Death of Jane Macarthy—Sabbath-day labours—Native doctors ... 525

CHAPTER XXIX.

1855.

Old Town affairs—Willy Tom Robins and his doings—His death, and sacrifices thereon—An escaped victim—The funeral rites interdicted—Missionary troubles—The town doomed on board ship—Consul and man-of-war arrive—Public meeting on board—The town destroyed—Remarks thereon—A right marriage—Slave owners, church members—African and American slavery—Decision and Rules thereon—Young Eyo falls, and is recovered—Death of Nsa Ene—A rare judicial decision—Creek Town church completed and opened—Dealings with King Eyo—Commotion in town—Young Eyo arrested on board ship, escapes, and is pursued—New station at Ikunitu—Meeting with people there—Duke Town objects—Misconduct of old scholars—Fable of a grindstone—Sad fate of an old scholar and of his two slaves—Marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland—Native trade rules—Mbiam oath refused—Converts fall into sin ... 549

CHAPTER XXX.

1856.

Consul and Man-of-war again—We address the Commander—New Consul arrives—Old Town to be rebuilt—Hostility of "river gentlemen" to mission—King Eyo's palace—Sierra Leone emigrants—Duke Ephraim blows Egbo on mission-house—Arrival of Consul and Commodore—Satisfactory meetings on board H.M.S. Scourge—Ugly affair of Captain — and lame Henshaw—Consul's decision—Schemes of our opponents—King Eyo begins to trouble us—Flogs a good boy unjustly, and is rebuked—The boy vindicated—Female converts in King's yard, their trials and steadfastness—Their baptism—Death of King's head men—An Egbo victim in Creek Town—King's child Amayau and her maid—Our orphans Jane and James—Losses and gains to the mission—Ikunitu opened—Review of year's work ... 576

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-01669-8 - Twenty-Nine Years in the West Indies and Central Africa

Hope Masterton Waddell

Table of Contents

More information

xiv

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER XXXI.

1857.

	Page
School labours—Eleventh anniversary of mission—Death of Mr. Edgerley—Visits to Ikorofong —Visit to Uwet —Egbo intruders and their fate—King Eyo's duplicity—His brother's opinion of us—Mistakes as to our connection with traders—Causes of hostility to the mission—Curious views as to missionaries in the country—Troubles arising from protecting a poor persecuted woman—Encouraging state of the mission in 1857—Fate of Young Antica Cobham—An albino sacrificed at Parrot Island—A man who sold his freedom—Birds caught in a spider's web—Electric fish ... ..	600

CHAPTER XXXII.

1858.

School labours—Sad example of superstitious fear and cruelty in King Eyo—Case of a Sierra Leone man and supercargo—Troubles arising therefrom—Twelfth anniversary of the mission—Consul and Man-of-War—False charges; trial; my defence; the decision—Note on conclusion of these affairs—We leave Calabar—Other passengers on board—Spaniards in Clarence—Bonny—Lagos—Prosperity of that port—Good passengers there—Evening prayers on board—A Spaniard and the Gospels—Various passengers at Sierra Leone and Bathurst—Difficulty of keeping up evening prayer—A fellow-passenger taking advice—Reached England—Calabar customs and plays ... ..	620
--	-----

CHAPTER XXXIII.

1858.

Death of King Eyo—Consternation in town and country—Slaves arm and muster in self-defence—Are satisfied, and disperse peaceably—The palace burned—Letters of natives on these events—Young Eyo now King Eyo III—He falls away—His sad end—Dreadful events consequent on his death—Wreck of the Eyo Honesty family—Conclusion—General remarks—Appeal for missionaries ... ..	642
---	-----

APPENDIX.

No. 1. Remonstrance of Jamaica Presbytery with Baptist missionaries ... ..	661
„ 2. Letters from King Eyamba and King Eyo about abandoning slave trade ... ..	663
„ 3. Commission and credentials ... ..	664
„ 4. Letter from King Eyo about resuming slave trade ... ..	667
„ 5. On Polygamy in mission churches ... ..	667
„ 6. Notes on the Efik Language ... ..	673