

Mission, Communion and Relationship

A Roman Catholic Response to the Crisis of Male Youths in Africa

PETER ADDAI-MENSAH

CONTENTS

Preface	ix
Acknowledgments.....	xi
Introduction.....	1
Thesis Statement.....	3
Overview: The History of Ghana	9
The History of Roman Catholic Church in Ghana.....	9
Contents of Chapters	12
 1. Missionary Dynamics of the Church in Ghana: Historical Background and Contemporary Context: A Roman Catholic Perspective with Emphasis on Ministry to Male Youth.....	 19
An Overview of Ghana and its People	19
The History of the Roman Catholic Church in Ghana.....	26
Other Christian Churches	42
The African Indigenous Churches (AIC)	46
The Roman Catholic Church and the Christian Council of Ghana	51
An Assessment of Recent Documents dealing with the Plight of Male Youth	54
Summary	57
 2. “Beards on Fire”: The Plight of African Male Youth: A Missiological Challenge to the Roman Catholic Church in Africa—A Ghanaian Analysis	 59
Rites of Passage.....	59
Dislocation in Society	63
Roman Catholic Church’s Response	81
The Archdiocese of Kumasi as an Example	85
Missionary Dynamics of Empowerment—The Case of Archdiocese of Cape Coast	91
The Responses of Other Christian Denominations	96
Response from other Religions—Africa Traditional Religion (ATR) and Islam	98
Summary	101

3. “I am because we are and since we are, therefore, I am”: Maturity and Male Identity Formation: Recovering and African Moral Vision for “Persons-in-Relation’: Insights from Kwame Gyekye, John Macmurray and Augustine.....	103
Kwame Gyekye (1931-)	104
The Man—John Macmurray (1891-1976)	113
Augustine of Hippo (354–430).....	122
Comparison of the insights of Kwame Gyekye, John Macmurray and Augustine	135
Summary	139
 4. Communion and Solidarity with Male Youth: A Missiological Imperative for the Roman Catholic Church in Africa.....	141
Communion and Solidarity in The New Testament Church	142
Communion and Solidarity in the Roman Catholic Church Today	145
Young People in the Church (1965-2005): A Retrospective Overview.....	146
Reaching out to Youth: Pastoral Strategies for incorporating Male Youth into the Roman Catholic Church in Ghana	155
Summary	172
 5. Maturing in Faith and Virtue: Towards an Inculturated Catechesis for Male Youth: Insights from Traditional African Philosophy and Biblical Narratives	175
Male Youth in Africa and the Formation of Cultural Identity: Coming to terms with ATR: The Challenge of Inculturation	176
Relationship: Divine and Human.....	185
Relationship: Person to Person	194
Relationship: Persons and the World.....	199
The Formation of Male Youth: Challenges Facing the Church & African Society	207
Summary	214
 Conclusion	215
Serving Youth: The Leadership of Good and Credible Men in the Church	221

Adequate and Proper Formation in Seminaries and Religious Houses	222
Committed and Dedicated Laity in the Church	223
Responsibility on the Part of Male Youth Themselves	224
Cultural Values and Christian Virtues: The Challenge of Appropriation	226
The Significance of the Emmaus Narrative for Those who Minister to Male Youth	227
Bibliography	229